TUDIAMONDS.COM

THE ONLINE HOME OF TEMPLE FOOTBALL

On April 25, 2014, Temple announced the launch of a new website, www.TUDiamonds.com, that serves as a one-stop hub for all of the Temple Owls Football social media accounts. The site was designed by JumpForward.

At TUDiamonds.com, the online home of Temple Football, Cherry & White fans are able to easily access the Twitter (@Temple_FB), Facebook (TempleOwlsFootball), Instagram (Temple_FB), and OwlsTV accounts. The twitter page comes with a directory of current TU coaches and players, and popular former Owls, so you can keep up with your favorites at all times.

Additional features include a digital countdown to the Owls next game, a photo gallery, and hashtag gallery so that when you hashtag #WeTheT from TU events, your photos can be displayed on the site.

Matt RHULE

Head Coach
Penn State '97

9th Season at Temple (3rd as Head Coach)

On December 17, 2012, Matt Rhule (pronounced RULE) returned to North Broad Street to take the helm as head coach of the Temple Owls. Following six seasons as one of Al Golden's top assistants, he joined the New York Giants as the assistant offensive line coach in 2012. He is now in his third year as the 26th Owls head coach and ninth on the Temple campus.

Prior to the start of his first season in charge he offered that his squad would produce an exciting brand of football and they would improve as the season progressed. Rhule delivered on those promises as the 2013 Owls produced nearly 400 yards per game of offense (the second best total in school history). Despite an 0-6 start to the season, the troops never surrendered and the team never trailed at the start of the fourth quarter in the second half of the season. The mission in the 2014 offseason was to learn how to finish out games.

They did just that, allowing only 23 4th quarter points in all of 2014. That adjustment, and the overall improved play of the defense, helped the Owls to a 6-6 record.

On June 25, 2015, Rhule was rewarded with a four-year contract extension that will keep him on the Temple sidelines through the 2021 season. Temple's Director of Athletics Dr. Patrick Kraft announced, "Matt Rhule is one of the best young coaches in college football and we are excited that he will be at the helm of Temple Football through at least 2021. Matt has the program heading in the right direction, especially as we enter a very promising season on the gridiron, and we are confident that he is the right person to take the program to even greater heights."

The State College, PA, native, a former player at Penn State, has 17 years of collegiate coaching experience, including eight seasons at Temple, and six bowl games -- two with the Owls -- on his resume.

Rhule joined the Giants in the spring of 2012. He worked closely with Pat Flaherty, who has been the offensive line coach since 2004. They finished the 2012 campaign at 9-7, second in the NFC East, and averaged 355 yards of offense per game. Four New York players, including guard Chris Snee, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

During his previous tenure at Temple, Rhule's role changed several times. In spring 2012, he was promoted to co-offensive coordinator after serving as the assistant offensive coordinator and tight ends coach as well as the recruiting coordinator under Steve Addazio in 2011. Temple's 2012 recruiting class was ranked #1 in the Mid-American Conference and helped lay the foundation for the program's transition to the Big East Conference.

Under Al Golden, Rhule was promoted to offensive coordinator in the spring of 2008. He also coached the TU quarterbacks. He coached the defensive line in 2006 and served as the quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator during the 2006 and 2007 seasons. For three consecutive years, Temple's recruiting class was ranked #1 in the MAC [2006, 2007, 2008].

In 2011, the Owls went 9-4 and played in the fourth bowl game in school history, the Gildan New Mexico Bowl, where they crushed Wyoming, 37-15 – Temple's first postseason victory since the 1979 Garden State Bowl. Rhule mentored two-time first-team All-MAC selection TE Evan Rodriguez. For the second time in Rhule's tenure, the Owls set the Temple single-season rushing yardage record and rushing touchdowns records behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC junior running backs Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown.

In 2010, Rhule helped guide the team to an 8-4 regular-season record, and the Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79, including their first win over a BCS team. The Owls recorded the largest margin of victory (42 points against Buffalo) in a MAC game. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC honors, including repeat first-team honorees OL Colin Madison, OL Darius Morris, and RB Bernard Pierce as well as first-time honoree TE Evan Rodriguez.

In 2009, Rhule's offense helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. Under Rhule's guidance, the Owls set the Temple single-season rushing yardage record. A school record five offensive players were named All-MAC, including three on the first team. All-American Bernard Pierce rushed his way into the Temple record book, re-writing all records for a rookie en route to 2009 MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

In 2008, Rhule took the reins as offensive coordinator, helping the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls outscored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Rhule coached All-MAC honorees C Alex Derenthal and school record holder WR Bruce Francis, while QB Adam DiMichele set the school record for passing touchdowns with six in the 55-52 win over Eastern Michigan. Francis set the school records for career receiving TDs (23) and consecutive games with a reception (38).

> Matt Rhule Could Sell Ice to an Eskimo
> Listening to Temple's third-year coach preach the virtues of his program, their league, their snazzy NFL stadium and the fact that a few former Owls have gone on to the NFL and Philadelphia itself and you can imagine how he dazzles prospective recruits. When Rhule gets on a roll he's mesmerizing. The fact that he's got actual NFL coaching experience doesn't hurt, either.

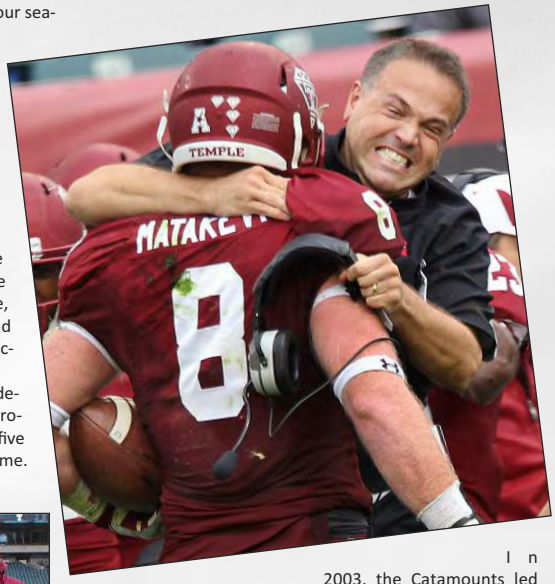
Steve Sarkisian, USC	41 (3-8-74)
Tony Sanchez, UNLV	41 (1-25-74)

Rhule arrived in Owl Country after spending four seasons as an assistant coach at Western Carolina, including three as assistant head coach.

From 2002 to 2005, Rhule was an assistant at Western Carolina under head coach Kent Briggs, serving as assistant head coach during his last three seasons. In 2005, he was offensive line coach and run game coordinator after directing the linebackers his first three years. Rhule was special teams coordinator during his tenure in Cullowhee (NC). In 2005, the Catamounts led Division I-AA in kickoff returns, averaging 27.44 yards per return. Sophomore Mike Malone earned first team All-Southern Conference honors with a 31.29 yards per kickoff return average, ranking second nationally. Two offensive linemen and the team's punter captured second team all-league accolades.

In 2004, WCU ranked 12th nationally in total defense and 15th in pass defense, largely due to the production of Rhule's linebacker corps. The team's top five tacklers were linebackers in its eight man front scheme.



In 2003, the Catamounts led the SoCon in rush defense for the first time in school history.

Rhule arrived at Western Carolina after serving as assistant defensive line coach at UCLA in 2001. He assisted in coaching five Bruins that earned All PAC-10 honors as the team posted a 7-4 record under head coach Bob Toledo.

From 1999 to 2000, Rhule served as an assistant coach at Mid-American Conference member Buffalo, directing the Bulls defensive line in 2000 and working as assistant defensive line coach in 1999. In 2000, the team's sack total increased from 12 to 27 utilizing a 3-4 alignment. Buffalo also earned its first two Division I-A victories that season.

Rhule began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Penn State in the spring of 1998 before working at Albright College in Reading, PA for the 1998 season. At Albright, he coached the linebackers in a 4-3 scheme and recruited western and central Pennsylvania.

Rhule played four seasons at linebacker with the Nittany Lions under Joe Paterno. A three-time Penn State Scholar-Athlete, he earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 1997. He received his undergraduate degree in political science before earning his master's degree in educational psychology from Buffalo in 2003.

Born January 31, 1975, he spent his childhood in New York City before moving to State College, PA, as a teenager.

He is married to the former Julie Nibert. The couple has a son, Bryant (10), and daughters, Vivienne (2) and Leona (newborn).

Ed FOLEY

Asst. Head Coach / Tight Ends / Special Teams
Bucknell '89

8th Season at Temple

Ed Foley enters his eighth season with Temple University and third as the assistant head coach and tight ends coach after two seasons as the director of football operations. Previously he served as the Owls' recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach/assistant offensive line coach for three seasons.

In his first year back on the sidelines, Foley helped develop former QB Chris Coyer into a tight end. That progress was hindered due to nagging injuries but Coyer closed out his senior campaign with 129 receiving yards and a TD in the season finale.

In 2010, Foley's tight ends and offensive line helped the team to an 8-4 regular-season record. The Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC accolades, including first-team honorees TE Evan Rodriguez, OL Colin Madison, and OL Darius Morris. Madison and Morris became the first repeat first-team All-MAC recipients in school history.

In 2009, the tight ends and offensive line helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. A school record five offensive players were named All-MAC, including senior TE Steve Maneri and four linemen. Juniors Colin Madison and Darius Morris earned First Team accolades.

In his first season with the Owls in 2008, Foley helped the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls out-scored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Foley also helped Temple bring in its fourth highly touted recruiting class during the Golden Era.

A native of Cherry Hill, NJ, Foley returned to the City of Brotherly Love after spending three seasons at Hofstra as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, and offensive line coach. The Pride offense blossomed under Foley in his first year as coordinator, increasing its yardage total from 269 to 388 yards per contest from the previous year. The Pride's scoring output also increased from 16.8 to 26.9 points per game. Foley also brought balance to the Pride attack as Hofstra's rushing total was its highest since 2000 (145 yards/game) and its passing attack netted 243 yards per contest. Charles Sullivan left as the all-time leader in receptions and yards after catching 86 balls for 991 yards under Foley's tutelage.

Prior to joining the Pride, Foley served seven years at Fordham University, including two seasons as head coach (2004, 2005). After a 5-6 record in 2004, a season in which the Rams dropped four games by a touchdown or less, Fordham slipped to a 2-9 mark in 2005. As Fordham's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1999 through 2003, Foley helped rejuvenate a program that rose to the top of the Patriot League in 2002, when it won its first-ever league title with a 10-3 record. In 2003, the Rams compiled a 9-3 overall record and had 12 players named to the All-Patriot League Team, including six members of the offense, four of whom were named to the first team.

Under Foley's guidance, the Fordham offense set numerous team and individual records. The Rams set a team record for most rushing yards in a season in 2003, gaining 1,657 yards, while also setting a school record for most pass completions in a season with 255. In 2002, Fordham led the Patriot League in passing offense and scoring offense, while finishing second in total offense and setting a team record for most points in a season. In addition to winning the Patriot League title that season, the Rams advanced to the NCAA I-AA Playoffs, where they defeated Northeastern University in the first round.

In 2001, Foley helped the Fordham offense develop its first 1,000-yard rusher on the NCAA Division I-AA level, as well as the first-ever 1,000-yard receiver in Fordham's history. The Rams had the second-ranked passing offense in the Patriot League in 2001 as well as the second-best scoring offense. In 2000, Foley's offense established a running game that generated 1,635 yards (an average of 148.6 per game), the most for a Fordham team on the I-AA level until the 2003 team gained 1,657.

Foley arrived at Fordham after spending the 1998 season as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Jacksonville University, which sponsored a football team that year for the first time in the school's history. Foley helped lead the Dolphins to a 4-5 record during their inaugural season, as the offense scored 271 points in nine games (30.1 ppg). The Dolphin attack averaged 380 yards per game, a perfectly balanced 190 yards rushing and passing per game.

Foley also served as an assistant coach at the University of Pennsylvania from 1991 to 1993, and again from 1995 to 1997, spending the 1994 season as an assistant at Williams College. At Penn, Foley coached the tight ends and tackles for five years and helped the Quakers to a perfect 10-0 record in 1993, when they also won the Ivy League Championship. Prior to his stint at Penn, Foley served as the offensive line coach at the State University of New York (SUNY) at Albany for two years.

Foley was a three-year starter at Bucknell University, playing offensive guard for one season and center for two. During his junior year, he was named the team's top lineman, and he served as a captain during his senior year. He earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Bucknell in 1989 and a master's degree in educational psychology at SUNY Albany in 1991.

Foley and his wife Rebecca have two sons, Charlie (15) and Luke (8), and a daughter Sara (6). His brother Glenn was a seven-year NFL veteran quarterback, playing with the New York Jets and Seattle Seahawks from 1993 to 2000.

Marcus SATTERFIELD

Offensive Coordinator / Running Backs
East Tennessee State '99
3rd Season at Temple

Marcus Satterfield enters his third season as the offensive coordinator at Temple University.

In 2013, his first season, his troups amassed nearly 400 offensive yards per game - eclipsed only by the 1979 Owls team. As offensive coordinator and quarterback coach, Satterfield tutored true freshman P.J. Walker who threw for 2,084 yards and 20 touchdowns in just seven starts.

Before joining Temple, Satterfield spent the previous four seasons as offensive coordinator at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. He spent his first three years grooming one of the most talented quarterbacks UTC has ever seen into an NFL draft pick. Satterfield totally revamped Chattanooga's offense to focus on the next generation of Mocs. In 2012, UTC switched to a spread system. The Mocs finished the season ranked fifth in the SoCon in scoring (25.5 ppg) and eighth in total offense (349.8 ypg).

B.J. Coleman had an outstanding three-year career under Satterfield's tutelage. He was eventually picked in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers, graduating with a UTC record 52 touchdown passes.

The 2010 season saw UTC rank #11 in the nation with 4,730 yards of total offense, the third highest mark in school history. Chattanooga also ranked in the top 20 in the FCS with 31.5 points per game, the second highest total in school history. UTC ranked #8 in the nation in passing offense with 277 yards per game and was third in the FCS in third-down conversions at 48.7%. Five offensive players were named to the All-SoCon team, while receiver Joel Bradford was pegged Third-Team All-American by the Associated Press.

In 2009, Coleman and Blue Cooper made up one of the top pass-catch tandems in the country. Cooper was #6 in the nation with 84 receptions and went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Prior to coming to UTC, Satterfield was the offensive coordinator at UT-Martin for three seasons. There he helped the Skyhawks win the 2006 Ohio Valley Conference championship and finish with the #1 ranked scoring offense in the OVC in 2008. He also led the 2007 squad to a #1 league ranking in total offense and points-per-game.

Satterfield worked at Richmond during the 2004 season. Satterfield left Richmond to coach the wide receivers at Western Carolina, alongside Matt Rhule, for two years before joining UT-Martin's staff.

A Greenback, TN, native, Satterfield was a three-year letterman as a wide receiver and punter at East Tennessee State from 1995-98, earning his degree in history from ETSU in 1999. He also played point guard for Chattanooga State Community College during the 1994-95 season.

Satterfield is married to the former Sarah Houser. The couple has a daughter, Harper (8).

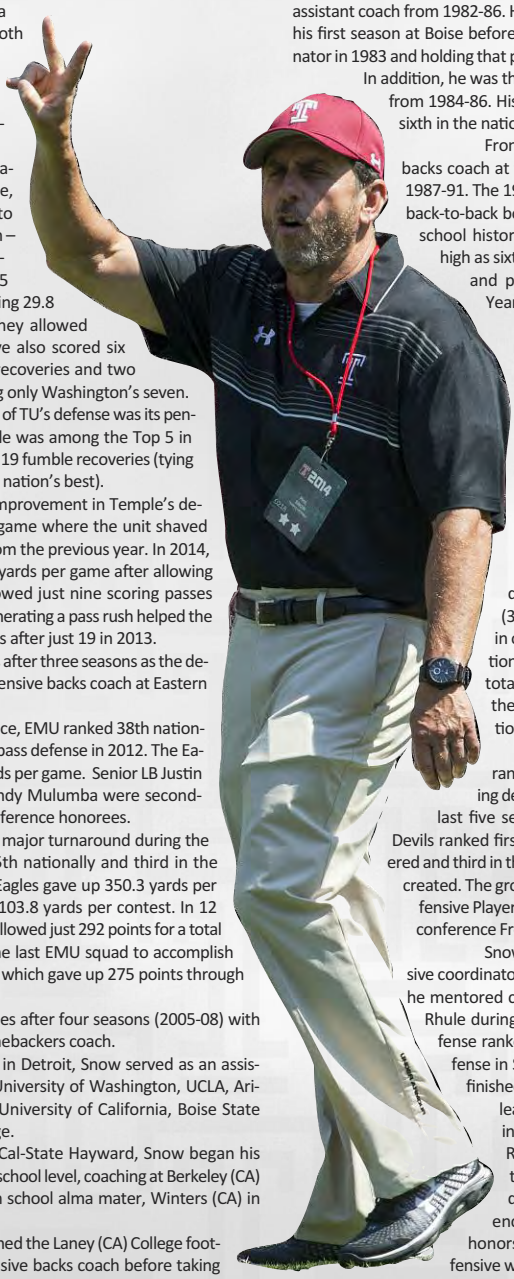
Phil SNOW

Defensive Coordinator
Cal State Hayward '78

3rd Season at Temple



Phil Snow, who has a wealth of experience in both the collegiate and professional coaching ranks, enters his third season at Temple University as the defensive coordinator.

In 2014 after a full season of digesting his defense, the unit transformed into one of the best in the nation – ranking fourth in scoring defense allowing just 17.5 points per game after allowing 29.8 a year ago. Not only did they allowed fewer points, but they have also scored six touchdowns (four fumble recoveries and two interception returns) trailing only Washington's seven. Aiding in the transformation of TU's defense was its penchant for takeaways. Temple was among the Top 5 in the NCAA with 30, including 19 fumble recoveries (tying Florida International for the nation's best).

The most dramatic improvement in Temple's defense came in the passing game where the unit shaved over 100 yards per game from the previous year. In 2014, the unit allowed just 186.9 yards per game after allowing 298.6 a year ago. They allowed just nine scoring passes after 24 one season ago. Generating a pass rush helped the cause – Temple had 25 sacks after just 19 in 2013.

Snow joined the Owls after three seasons as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Eastern Michigan University.

Under Snow's guidance, EMU ranked 38th nationally and third in the MAC in pass defense in 2012. The Eagles gave up just 212.75 yards per game. Senior LB Justin Cudworth and senior DE Andy Mulumba were second-team All-Mid-American Conference honorees.

Snow orchestrated a major turnaround during the 2011 campaign, ranking 35th nationally and third in the MAC in total defense. The Eagles gave up 350.3 yards per game, an improvement of 103.8 yards per contest. In 12 games, the Eagles' defense allowed just 292 points for a total of 24.3 points per game. The last EMU squad to accomplish the feat was the 1994 team which gave up 275 points through its 11 contests.

Snow joined the Eagles after four seasons (2005-08) with the NFL's Detroit Lions as linebackers coach.

Prior to his NFL stint in Detroit, Snow served as an assistant football coach at the University of Washington, UCLA, Arizona State University, the University of California, Boise State University, and Laney College.

A 1978 graduate of Cal-State Hayward, Snow began his coaching career on the high school level, coaching at Berkeley (CA) H.S. in 1976, and at his high school alma mater, Winters (CA) in 1977-78.

From there, Snow joined the Laney (CA) College football staff in 1979 as a defensive backs coach before taking over as the defensive coordinator in 1980 and 1981.

His next stop was Boise State University where he was an assistant coach from 1982-86. He was a defensive backs coach in his first season at Boise before becoming the defensive coordinator in 1983 and holding that position through the 1986 season. In addition, he was the top assistant to the head coach from 1984-86. His Boise State defense was ranked sixth in the nation in 1986.

From Boise, Snow became defensive backs coach at the University of California from 1987-91. The 1990 and 1991 teams won the first back-to-back bowl games (Copper and Citrus) in school history. The 1991 team moved up as high as sixth in the weekly national rankings and played in the school's first New Year's Day bowl game in 33 years.

After his California experience, Snow became the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Arizona State University from 1992-2000 and saw the 1996 team play in the Rose Bowl, the 1997 team make the Sun Bowl, while the 1999 and 2000 squads played in the Aloha Bowl. Snow's 1996 ASU squad finished first in the conference in rush defense (98.0), pass defense (104.2) and total defense (306.2). It held Nebraska scoreless in one game and limited the opposition to under 10 points in five games total that season. The team finished the season ranked fourth in the nation in both polls.

His defensive units ranked among the top three in scoring defense in the PAC-10 in three of his last five seasons at ASU. In 2000, the Sun Devils ranked first in the nation in fumbles recovered and third in the country in number of turnovers created. The group was headlined by PAC -10 Defensive Player of the Year, Adam Archuleta, and conference Freshman of the Year, Terrell Suggs.

Snow left ASU to become the defensive coordinator for two seasons at UCLA, where he mentored current Temple head coach Matt Rhule during the 2001 season. The Bruin defense ranked first in the PAC-10 in total defense in Snow's first season. The unit also finished the season ranked second in the league in rushing defense and scoring defense. In addition, linebacker Robert Thomas, a first round selection by the Rams in the 2002 NFL draft, earned 2001 PAC-10 Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors. Kenyon Coleman was the defensive winner of the Morris Trophy as the PAC-10's best lineman. The 2002 team participated in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Francis BROWN

Defensive Backs
Western Carolina '06

5th Season at Temple

Francis Brown begins his fifth season at Temple University and third as the defensive backs coach.

He spent the last two seasons coaching the defensive backfield with defensive coordinator Phil Snow. Brown's concentration was with the corners.

In 2014, Brown's unit shined due to the play of junior CB Tavon Young and freshman Sean Chandler. Young earned All-American Athletic Conference honors with four interceptions and a conference-best 153 return yards. Chandler, who like Brown attended Camden High, joined the starting unit immediately as a true freshman and helped transform Temple's unit coming off a disappointing 2013 season.

The most dramatic improvement in Temple's defense came in the passing game where the unit shaved over 100 yards per game from the previous year. In 2014, the unit allowed just 186.9 yards per game after allowing 298.6 a year ago. They allowed just nine scoring passes after 24 one season ago.

In 2014, Rivals.com named Brown one of the top recruiters in the American Athletic Conference in part because of his recruitment of Chandler. The 2015 class included four-star recruit, Kareem Ali from Timber Creek.

In 2012, he served as a graduate assistant coach working with the defense.

In 2011, Brown worked as the assistant director of internal operations. He was in charge of player development and community service projects.

Prior to joining the Owls, Brown coached the defensive backs at Paul VI High School. The New Jersey native also worked as a football trainer at Nexxt Level Sports in 2009-10, training South Jersey athletes, and helped with several area summer camps.

Brown received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Western Carolina University in 2006. Playing under assistant head coach Matt Rhule, the team captain was a first-team All-SoCon selection at cornerback for the Catamounts.

Following graduation, Brown had two short stays with the Cincinnati Bengals during the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

Brown was three-time All-Conference quarterback at Camden High School, setting the school record with 47 touchdown passes.

Brown and his wife Teara reside in Wenonah, NJ, with their sons Francis, Jr. (10), and Brayden (3).

Wide Receivers
Western Illinois '04

1st Season at Temple

Frisman Jackson joins the Temple staff for his first season in 2015 as wide receivers coach. A former quarterback and National Football League wide receiver, he brings over 19 years of experience to Temple.

Jackson arrives in Philadelphia after two seasons as the wide receivers coach at North Carolina State. In 2014 the Wolfpack had five different receivers with at least 20 receptions and one touchdown. In 2013, Jackson unit produced six receivers with 20-or-more catches.

In 2012 at Northern Illinois, Jackson coached wide receiver Martel Moore, who earned first-team All-MAC honors as the Huskies won the conference championship and played Florida State in the Orange Bowl. Moore ranked 23rd nationally with his 1,083 receiving yards and fifth in the nation with 13 touchdown receptions. Receivers Tommylee Lewis and Perez Ashford also had their best seasons as Huskie players in 2012.

During Jackson's time at Western Illinois, wide receiver Lito Senatus finished in the top 30 in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in receptions and in the top 40 in receiving yards.

Before embarking on a coaching career, Jackson played six seasons in the National Football League as a wide receiver. He was an undrafted free agent for Cleveland in 2002 and went on to play for the Browns for five seasons. During that time, he had 40 receptions for 490 yards and one touchdown. In 2007, he was signed as a free agent by the New York Jets.

Jackson began his collegiate career playing quarterback at Northern Illinois, then transferred to Western Illinois where he played quarterback and wide receiver for the Leathernecks in 2000 and 2001. At Northern Illinois, he completed 109-of-259 passes for 1,327 yards in 10 starts over three seasons. At WIU, he set the school record for catches (14) and receiving yards (286) in a game versus Indiana State in 2001. He ranks fourth on the WIU single-season list with 1,041 receiving yards and is 10th in single season with 55 catches.

The Chicago native earned a B.A. in law enforcement and justice administration from Western Illinois in 2004, and a M.S. degree in RPTA from Western Illinois in 2010.

Jackson was a four sport star at Morgan Park High where he played football, basketball, baseball and ran track.

Jackson and his wife Lindsey have a daughter, Anya (3), and newborn son, Forrest.

Elijah ROBINSON

Defensive Line
Penn State '08

2nd Season at Temple

Elijah Robinson begins his second season as defensive line coach for the Temple Owls.

Robinson's impact on the defensive line was apparent and immediate. The D-line was creating pressure and forcing turnovers at a rapid pace. In the first four games of the season, four touchdowns were scored by the defensive line. The team had nine sacks and 21 tackles for loss.

By season's end, DT Matt Ioannidis and DE Praise Martin-Oguike were making every All-Conference list. Ioannidis notched 47 tackles and a team-leading 11.0 TFLs while Martin-Oguike's 7.5 sacks were the most by an Owl since 2010.

Robinson, a Camden, NJ, native, came home to Philadelphia after spending the previous ten seasons at Penn State.

The former Nittany Lion defensive tackle transitioned into coaching when his playing career was cut short after suffering a neck injury during spring practice in 2007. Robinson graduated from Penn State in 2008 and joined the PSU staff as a graduate assistant coach one year later.

His primary responsibilities were assisting Larry Johnson in coaching the defensive line and preparing the offensive scout team from 2009. In 2011 he was promoted to a full time coaching position. Then in 2012 when Bill O'Brien took over as head coach, Robinson became Penn State's director of player development and NFL liaison. In that role he would organize scouting visits, orchestrate Pro Day, develop community service initiatives and serve as the football team's liaison with admissions, compliance, housing and academics.

Robinson earned All-State and All-South Jersey honors at Woodrow Wilson High School, leading the team to a 15-0 record and a state championship in 2002.

Mike SIRAVO

Linebackers
Boston College '98

4th Season at Temple

Mike Siravo (pronounced SIR-ah-voh), who served as the Owls' linebackers coach and recruiting coach in 2006, returned to Temple University in 2013. He's now in his fourth season with the Owls and third season under Matt Rhule as the linebackers coach.

For the past two seasons, Siravo's unit was led by WLB Tyler Matakevich. Matakevich earned American Athletic Conference All-America honors each year after leading the nation with 8.8 solo tackles per game in 2013. The senior has now eclipsed the 100-tackle plateau in all three seasons - a feat that ties him with Steve Conjar and Joe Klecko in the Temple record books. Matakevich is the only player in the country with more than 300 career tackles (355) entering 2015.

Siravo re-joined the Owls after six seasons as defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Boston College. Siravo coached a secondary that helped three Boston College defenses rank within the nation's Top 10 in interceptions– 2007 (second, 25), 2008 (first, 26) and 2010 (eighth, 20).

His 2010 secondary helped the team rank first in the country in rushing defense, eighth in interceptions (20), and 13th in total defense.

In 2008, Siravo coached the secondary that was a key part of a defense that ranked in the Top 10 nationally in seven different categories, including interceptions (t-first, 26), turnovers gained (second, 36), total defense (fifth, 286.14), red zone defense (sixth, .72), rush defense (seventh, 91.2), pass efficiency defense (seventh, 98.81), and first downs defense (sixth, 14.71).

In 2007, Siravo was a part of a Boston College staff that led the Eagles to an 11-3 record (the first Eagle team to win 11 games since 1940). The Eagles began the season 8-0 and were ranked No. 2 in the nation in both major polls. The team won the Atlantic Division of the ACC and went on to win an eighth consecutive bowl game. The Eagles finished 10th in the final AP poll, the program's best finish since the 1984 season.

Boston College ranked second in the country with 25 interceptions in 2007. The Eagle defense finished fourth in the ACC in pass defense efficiency and finished third in the league in total defense. Under Siravo's guidance, free safety Jamie Silva was a consensus All-America first-team honoree and a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award given to the nation's top defensive back.

Siravo first stepped on North Broad Street in 2006 as Owls' linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator during Al Golden's first season. With Siravo's help, Temple had the top-ranked recruiting class in the Mid-American Conference in 2006, which produced five NFL players, including Steve Maneri and Andre Neblett.

Prior to joining the Temple staff in 2006, Siravo spent three seasons as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Columbia University (2003-05). At Columbia, Siravo developed a system to streamline the Lions' nationwide recruiting efforts. The linebacking corps was also considerably strengthened under his tutelage, with senior Chuck Britton earning All-Ivy accolades in 2004.

A Pawtucket, RI, native, Siravo joined the Eagles as a walk-on in 1995 and later earned a scholarship. The two-time letterwinner played linebacker under head coaches Dan Henning and Tom O'Brien. He earned Academic All-Big East honors as a senior.

Siravo earned a bachelor's degree in history from Boston College in 1998. He also earned a master's degree from his alma mater in administrative studies of business in 2000.

Upon graduation, Siravo remained in Chestnut Hill and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for recruiting in 1998. The Eagles' February 1999 recruiting class was rated the best in school history, ranking 15th nationally according to expert Tom Lemming.

Siravo is married to the former Alison Cahill. They have two children— William (5), Evelyn (3), and Henry Michael (1).

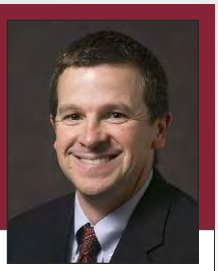
Glenn THOMAS

Quarterbacks
Texas Tech '98



1st Season at Temple

Glenn Thomas comes to Temple for his first season as quarterbacks coach with the Owls after a seven year stint with the Atlanta Falcons.

Thomas spent three seasons as the Falcons quarterbacks coach after four seasons as the team's offensive assistant. During his tenure in Atlanta the Falcons offense was its most productive in franchise history, and quarterback Matt Ryan soared to new levels each season.

During the three seasons where Thomas guided Ryan, the Philadelphia native and former first round pick out of Boston College threw for more than 4,500 and 26 touchdowns in each season earning Pro Bowl honors in 2013 and 2015. Ryan cemented himself as the best quarterback in franchise history supplanting Steve Bartkowski with 28,166 career passing yards and 181 touchdowns. It was under Thomas, however, that Ryan set career and franchise single-season highs in passing yards (4,719), touchdown passes (32) and completion percentage (68.6) in 2012.

Aside from his work with Ryan, while Thomas was in Atlanta the offense featured perennial all-pros Roddy White and Julio Jones at wide receiver, Michael Turner at running back, and Tony Gonzalez, arguably the best tight end to play in the NFL.

From 2001-07, Thomas spent his coaching tenure at Midwestern State. As a graduate assistant coaching wide receivers (2001-04), the Mustangs won the Lone Star North Division Championship in his first season. Thomas oversaw the school's passing game and quarterbacks in the 2004 campaign, and helped guide MSU to its first NCAA playoff appearance in school history while recording an 8-3 record.

Thomas transformed Midwestern State's offense into a powerhouse while serving as offensive coordinator from 2005-07. In 2007, his offense led the entire NCAA in total offense (550.0 yards per game) and rushing yards per game (317.0).

Thomas found time to work with the Baltimore Ravens in-between seasons at Midwestern State. He was responsible for working with wide receivers (2002-03, '05) and also helped out with Baltimore's quarterbacks. It was also in Baltimore where he was introduced to current Falcons head coach Mike Smith. The two also worked together during Smith's tenure with the Jacksonville Jaguars for one season (2004).

Following his graduation from Texas Tech, Thomas began his coaching career as a student assistant at his alma mater from 1998-2001.

A native of Eastland, Texas, Thomas and his wife, Felicia, have two sons, Hayden (4) and Dylan (2).

PROMINENT PLAYERS COACHED

ATLANTA FALCONS:

TE TONY GONZALEZ - Statistically the best tight end to ever play in the NFL; holds the career marks for TEs in receptions (1,325), receiving yards (15,127), and touchdowns (111).

WR JULIO JONES - A two-time Pro Bowler who led the NFL in receiving yards in 2014 when he had career-highs in receptions (93) and yards (1,428); was a part of Alabama's 14-0 National Championship team in 2010 and became the #6 overall pick by Atlanta in the subsequent draft.

QB LUKE McCOWN - An 11-year NFL quarterback who spent the 2012 season in Atlanta; began as a 4th round pick of the Cleveland Browns in 2004 and has spent time with Tampa Bay (2005-08), Jacksonville (2009-11), Atlanta (2012), and New Orleans (2013-14).

QB MATT RYAN - Was the #3 pick in the NFL draft by Atlanta after a stellar carer at Boston College; earned Rookie of the Year honors in 2008 and has gone onto three Pro Bowls; is the Atlanta Falcons all-time leader in all major passing categories - attempts, completions, yards, and touchdowns.

RB MICHAEL TURNER - Drafted by San Diego in 2004 after a decorated career at Northern Illinois; traded to Atlanta in 2008 where he became a two-time all-pro and led the NFL in rushing in 2010 and 2011.

WR RODDY WHITE - Was a first round pick by Atlanta in 2005 and has become one of the franchise's all-time best players holding the record for most career receiving yards (7,374); a four-time Pro Bowler (2008-11) who led the NFC in receiving yards in 2010 with 1,389.

QB T.J. YATES - A fifth round NFL selection by Houston in 2011, he became the first North Carolina Tar Heel quarterback to ever start an NFL game after Matt Schaub and backup Matt Leinert suffered injuries; led the Texans to the playoffs including a win vs. Cincinnati.

Chris WIESEHAN

Offensive Line
Wabash College '93

2nd Season at Temple

Chris Wiesehan (pronounced WEEZ-uh-han) begins his second year as offensive line coach for the Temple Owls. During his 21-year coaching career, Wiesehan has coached nearly all the offensive positions, including five stops where he tutored offensive linemen.

In his first season at Temple, Wiesehan oversaw an offensive line that cut its sack total by over 33% from the previous year. The line allowed just 21 sacks (down from 32) which was the third lowest total in 29 seasons. In fact, Temple quarterbacks were sacked just once every 19.2 pass attempts - the best mark in school history. The line performed admirably considering a midseason stretch of six games with six different line combinations.

Wiesehan's methods seemed to impact junior center Kyle Friend the most. Working with his third position coach in as many seasons, Friend earned recognition on every all-conference list.

Wiesehan came to Philadelphia from the University of Hawaii where he began as an offensive line/run game coordinator. He helped coach freshman center Ben Clarke, who received All-Mountain West honorable mention honors and received the team's Offensive Player of the Year award. After coaching the offensive line in 2012, Wiesehan moved to running backs coach in 2013.

Wiesehan traveled to UH after serving as wide receivers coach for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League. In 2011, he helped Winnipeg to the Grey Cup. While in his first year, he coached a group which boasted the second leading receiver in the league in Terrence Edwards who finished with 1,372 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Wiesehan spent the 2009 season at UCLA as tight ends coach. The Bruins participated in the Eagle Bank Bowl and tight ends Ryan Moya and Logan Paulsen signed with the Cleveland Browns and Washington Redskins, respectively.

From 2007-08, Wiesehan was the offensive line coach at Syracuse. During his tenure, the Orange had their first 1,000-yard rusher in five seasons and two of his players were either drafted or signed by NFL teams. In addition, his offensive line cut the number of sacks allowed in half during his second year.

Prior to Syracuse, Wiesehan served as the offensive line coach at James Madison in 2006. In his only season, the Dukes won the Atlantic 10 South Division and led the conference in rushing. JMU also ranked 11th nationally in rushing and qualified for NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

Wiesehan gained NFL experience by working as an offensive assistant for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2005. Prior to that, he coached at Northern Arizona from 2001-04, where he spent two seasons each as wide receivers coach and offensive line coach. At NAU, the line allowed the fewest sacks in the Big Sky while helping produce a 1,000-yard rusher, and six linemen earned all-conference honors. NAU also won the 2003 Big Sky Championship and qualified for the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 2001 and '03.

Wiesehan spent two seasons at Buffalo (1999-2000), coaching the wide receivers and tight ends during his first season and offensive line in his second year.

In 1997 and '98, he was on staff at Notre Dame as the tight ends coach where the Irish participated in the Independence Bowl and the Gator Bowl. He spent the 1996 season coaching the tight ends at Purdue and mentored three-time Super Bowl champion New England Patriot Matt Light.

He began his coaching career at Fort Hays State from 1994-95 as the receivers coach, where he coached two All-Americans and four all-conference players. The school won the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference and participated in the Division II National Playoffs.

As a player, Wiesehan was a wide receiver and kick returner at Wabash College (1990-93). As a senior, he served as team captain and earned All-America honors while being named his team's Receiver of the Year for the third time. He was inducted into its Hall of Fame in 2014.

Wiesehan and his wife, Renee, have one son, Colton.

PROMINENT PLAYERS COACHED
UCLA:
OL NATE CHANDLER – Multi-position player who began his college career at offensive line and was moved to tight end, but spent the majority of his career on the defensive line and finished with 38 tackles, two sacks and two pass deflections. Signed by Carolina Panthers as a free agent in 2012.
TE CORY HARKEY – Played every game of his college career, totaling 213 yards on 28 receptions at tight end. Awarded Jerry Long "Heart" Award and Kenneth S. Washington Award for Outstanding Senior of the Year. Signed as a free agent by St. Louis in 2012.
TE RYAN MOYA - UCLA's outstanding senior in 2009. Placed on the 2009 John Mackey Award Watch List. Finished career as #3 UCLA all-time TE.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACHES

Derek CARR

Graduate Asst. - Offense
Tennessee-Martin '13
2nd Season at Temple

Derek Carr is in his second season as graduate assistant coach for Temple University where he works with the offense.

Carr is reunited with Owls offensive coordinator Marcus Satterfield who served as associate head coach at the University of Tennessee-Martin upon Carr's arrival.

Carr was a three-year captain at UTM where he holds many quarterback records. He holds the marks for career pass attempts (1,110), completions (665), yards (8,428), and TDs (69); and TD passes in a game (7; twice). He set the NCAA mark for passing efficiency at Murray State in 2012 when he completed 42 of 46 passes for 560 yards and 7 TDs.

After his graduation in 2013 with a B.S. degree in university studies, Carr served as a graduate assistant at UTM working with the quarterbacks. The McKenzie, TN, native is an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and has spent time working for the Boys and Girls Clubs of America.

Eric FARGO

Graduate Asst. - Defense
Temple '13
2nd Season at Temple

Eric Fargo is in his second season as a graduate assistant coach at Temple University working with Phil Snow and the defense.

He has spent the previous two years as a student assistant at Temple on the offensive side of the ball, where he helped instruct the offensive line and the wide receivers. Fargo also spent time as a member of the recruiting staff in 2011.

In 2013, under the guidance of then wide receiver coach Terry Smith, Fargo assisted in the development of a vastly improved wide receiver core that was highlighted by the emergence of Robby Anderson who caught 9 touchdowns, which was tied for second in the American Athletic Conference.

Fargo graduated from Souderton (PA) Area High School in 2008, where he played for well-respected head coach Ed Gallagher. He was a two-year letterman at the tight end and linebacker position. He then played linebacker for one year under coach Geno DeMarco at Geneva College during the 2008-2009 season.

He began his coaching career in 2010 tutoring tight ends and linebackers at his alma mater, Souderton Area High School.

Fargo received his degree in adult and organizational development from Temple in 2013. He is pursuing a master's degree from the College of Education.

Bobby MAFFEI

Graduate Asst. - Defense
Nebraska-Lincoln '11
2nd Season at Temple

Bobby Maffei is in his second season as graduate assistant coach for Temple University where he works with the defense and special teams.

Maffei came to Temple from Pace University where he was a wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator. Prior to his stint at Pace, he spent three seasons at Central Connecticut State in a variety of roles. He began as director of football operations where he organized team travel, directed summer camps, and organized recruiting visits. In 2011, along with his operations role he handled quality control for the defense. In 2012 he became the wide receivers coach and in 2013 added the responsibility of special teams coordinator.

The Trumbull, CT, native, began his coaching career as a student assistant at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln from 2007-2010. He graduated in 2011 with a B.S. degree in educational and human sciences majoring in Spanish and secondary education.

Calvin POWELL

Graduate Asst. - Offensive
Southwestern College '08
1st Season at Temple

Calvin Powell begins his first season at Temple as a graduate assistant working with the offense.

Powell comes to Philadelphia after one season at SUNY Maritime College where he was running back coach and video coordinator. Prior to that he spent one year at St. Michael's Catholic Academy in Austin, TX. He joined the Crusaders as the football offensive line coach in 2013 and was also assisting with men's basketball. He arrived at St. Michael's after spending one year as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Green Hill School in Dallas. Prior to Green Hill, Powell spent two years at Langston University, first as the graduate assistant running back coach where he instructed Carlos Ross, the Lions' all-time leading rusher, and second as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. Before that, he spent one year coaching tight ends and running backs at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College and one year coaching offensive line at Green Hill School.

Powell played at Duncanville High School before going on to Hampton University and then to Southwestern College (Kansas) where he was a letter winner. He is a graduate of Southwestern College with a B.S. degree in sports management and completed his master's degree in educational leadership from Langston University.

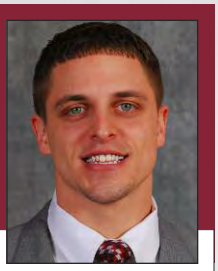
Adam DIMICHELE

Director of Player Development
Temple '09



3rd Season at Temple

Adam DiMichele begins his first season as director of player development.

In 2014, DiMichele was named wide receivers coach. As such, he became the 19th Temple football player to serve as a full-time coach and the first in over 25 seasons. DiMichele spent the 2013 season at TU as a graduate assistant coach, working with the offense.

Since graduation, DiMichele has played professional football, including stints in the NFL and CFL. During the 2012 season, he played with the Philadelphia Soul of the Arena Football League.

Named the 2011 Southern Indoor Football League MVP, DiMichele led the Erie Explosion to a 9-3 record en route to a division title. He led the league in passing yards per game (270.6), team points per game (70.2), and total team offensive yards per game (260.0), while completing 235-of-427 passes (55%) for over 3,200 yards and a league-best 91 touchdowns to just seven interceptions.

DiMichele has also spent time with the Philadelphia Eagles (2009), the Calgary Stampeders (2009), and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (2009).

Temple's team two-time MVP and team captain in 2007 and 2008, DiMichele finished his career ranked fourth in school history with 5,024 passing yards, adding 40 passing touchdowns and five rushing scores. During his first season as the Owls' signal caller (2006), DiMichele played in all 11 games with nine starts as a sophomore. In 2007, he started the first eight games before suffering a season-ending injury. In one of Temple's biggest comebacks in school history, DiMichele threw three fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead TU to a come-from-behind win at Akron during their first season of Mid-American Conference play. In 2008, he overcame intense rehabilitation and started nine games as a senior. In the 55-52 win over Eastern Michigan, DiMichele threw for a school record six touchdowns and passed for a career-high 370 yards. He broke school records for passing touchdowns in a game (six) and set a career-high for passing yards in game (370). His 370 yards marked his 10th 200-plus passing yardage games, which rank him third on the Temple's career list for 200-yard passers. It also marked his fourth 300-plus passing game, which tied the school record with Henry Burris.

DiMichele finished the 2008 season at 134-of-231 (58.0 percent) for 1,911 yards and 18 touchdowns in nine games also rushed 61 times for 91 yards and three touchdowns. His passing efficiency (148.02) ranked #19 in the final NCAA statistics. He finished his career with 5,024 passing yards which ranks fourth on Temple's all-time chart.

One of the most accomplished prep athletes in the history of Pennsylvania, DiMichele was a three-sport all-state selection as a senior in football, basketball and baseball at Sto-Rox High School. The McKees Rocks, PA, native had one of the best high school careers in the history of Pennsylvania as the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League's all-time leading passer, which includes breaking records set by former NFL greats and Hall of Famers Joe Montana, Dan Marino, and Joe Namath. He earned first-team All-State honors in all three sports, and was cited as the state Player of the Year in both football and basketball.

DiMichele was inducted into the WPIAL Hall of Fame in 2011.

Prior to joining the Owls, DiMichele attended Okaloosa-Walton College (FL) for two years to play baseball. He was selected in the 38th round of the 2005 Major League Baseball Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays.

DiMichele received his degree in sport and recreation management from Temple in 2009. He is pursuing a master's degree in sports psychology.

One of seven children, DiMichele's younger brother Alex played football at Temple before transferring to Robert Morris. His brother Anthony played football at Holy Cross. Both brothers were I-AA All-Americans.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Jeremy SCOTT

Head Strength & Conditioning Coach
Lock Haven '96

3rd Season at Temple

Jeremy Scott, who has spent his career optimizing the performance of collegiate and professional athletes, enters his third season at Temple University as the head strength and conditioning coach for football.

Scott previously spent 14 seasons at Penn State as the speed development coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach for the football program. He was responsible for developing players' speed, reaction, agility, quickness and acceleration, as well as working on proper running mechanics and high-intensity strength training. His expertise was a valuable resource in lowering 40-yard sprint times and preparing players for the drills used in evaluation at the NFL combines.

In 2012, Scott worked with the varsity teams at Princeton University.

Scott was recognized for his achievements with his selection in 2011 for the prestigious title of Master of Strength and Conditioning Coach.

A 1996 graduate of Lock Haven University, Scott obtained his master's degree in health education from Penn State in 1999. He previously served as a graduate assistant with the Penn State strength and conditioning program from 1997-98 and performed an internship with the program in the summer of 1996. His work experience also includes designing and implementing a high-intensity strength training program for the United States Marine Corps Company B Body Bearers (1998), serving as the strength coach for the Penn State Boxing Club (1997-98) and as a personal trainer (1995).

Scott is married to the former Cory Beth Wickizer, and they have a daughter, Emma (9), and son, Evan (5).

Brandon WASHINGTON

Asst. Strength & Conditioning Coach
LSU '09

2nd Season at Temple

Brandon Washington, who spent two seasons with the University of Alabama football team's strength and conditioning staff, enters his second season with Temple University.

Washington joined the Owls directly from Nicholls State University where he was the defensive line coach in 2013.

Prior to his stint at Nicholls State, he was the head strength and conditioning coach at Atlanta Sports Academy where he oversaw the progress of 150 athletes in four sports (football, basketball, baseball, and lacrosse). While there he also coached the defensive line. In his three years, he played an instrumental role in the football team's 40-6 record leading the defensive line to 123 sacks in that span. During his time in Atlanta, he also founded 10/90 Athletics and USAFootballclinic.com/Gridiron101, each designed as a youth football development program.

Washington began his coaching career in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, first at Central High and then at Alabama. At Alabama he was reunited with head coach Nick Saban who recruited Washington to Louisiana State in 2001.

At LSU, Washington was a four-year letterman and member of a class that collected a 54-11 record. The Tigers won two SEC Championships (2001, 2003) as well as the 2003 National Championship. While there he was coached and mentored by well-known college and NFL defensive line coaches such as Pete Jenkins (SEC/NFL), Karl Dunbar (NY Jets), Bo Davis (Alabama), Lance Thompson (Alabama) and Travis Jones (Seattle Seahawks).

During his coaching career, Washington has mentored the following NFL draft choices: Terrence Cody (Baltimore), Wallace Gilberry (Cincinnati), Brandon Deaderick (New England), Marcel Dareus (Buffalo), and Courtney Upshaw (Baltimore).

The Tuscaloosa, AL, native graduated with a degree in humanities and social sciences from LSU in 2011.

Kevin KROBOTH

Asst. Strength & Conditioning Coach
Temple '12

4th Season at Temple

Kevin Kroboth begins his fourth season working in strength and conditioning at Temple University. He was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2015 after three seasons as a graduate assistant.

A 2012 Temple graduate with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, Kroboth was a member of two bowl teams with the Owls and a member of the school's all-time winningest Senior Class. A 2011 third-team All-Mid-American Conference honoree at safety, Kroboth started all 13 games as a senior, one of only nine Owls to start every game. He finished the 2011 season second in tackling with 76 stops, a team-best seven break-ups, and three interceptions. Kroboth played in the Casino Del Sol All-Star Game following his senior season. He was named the team's 2008 Special Teams MVP as a true freshman.

Kroboth began his playing career at Nazareth High School, playing quarterback and safety for the Blue Eagles. The team captain finished his prep career with 692 rushing yards and six touchdowns. A two-time All-Lehigh Valley Conference selection, Kroboth played in the McDonald's All-Star Classic.

The Nazareth, PA, native completed his master's degree in sports psychology.

Pat BOYLE

Grad. Asst. - Strength & Conditioning
Temple '12

1st Season at Temple

After volunteering in the weight room a year ago, Pat Boyle will begin his first season as a graduate assistant on the strength and conditioning staff.

Boyle was a highly decorated member of the Owls football team from 2008-11 and parlayed that into a brief NFL career. He was a member of the Detroit Lions from 2012-13.

At Temple, where he played alongside his twin brother Sean, Pat Boyle was an All-MAC selection as a four-time letterwinner and two-year starter on the offensive line. He was invited to play in the 2012 AstroTurf NFLPA Collegiate Bowl. Academically, he earned 2012 PNC Male Student-Athlete of the Year, the 2012 Owl Club Academic Award, and was cited on the 2012, 2011, and 2010 Athletic Director's Honor Roll.

The Towson, MD, native played at Calvert Hall College HS where he was team captain. He was named to the Maryland Varsity Dream Team and selected as an All-Star by the Baltimore Touchdown Club. He earned All-MIAA Conference accolades in the shot put where he helped the team to a conference indoor championship in 2008.

SPORTS MEDICINE / VIDEO

Al BELLAMY

Director of Athletic Training
Michigan State '84

3rd Season at Temple

Al Bellamy is now in his third season as Temple Athletics' director of athletic training.

He oversees all 19 of Temple's intercollegiate sports, while working directly with the football team, and managing the sports medicine staff. He brings 25 years of NFL athletic training experience to Temple, including 12 seasons with the Detroit Lions.

With Detroit, Bellamy helped manage the team's athletic training staff and worked closely with the team's physicians.

Bellamy arrived in Detroit following 13 years as assistant trainer with the Washington Redskins. He began working with the Redskins in 1988 and was a member of the team's medical staff when Washington won Super Bowl XXVI. In 2009, Bellamy also served on the Gatorade Advisory Board.

Prior to joining the Redskins, he served a two-year stint as an assistant athletic trainer with the University of Miami (FL) football team (1986-87). During this span, he worked with the Hurricanes' program that claimed the 1987 National Championship. That assignment was his first full-time job and came after he had earned his master's degree in physical education (emphasis on sports medicine) from Syracuse.

Before obtaining his master's from Syracuse, Bellamy attended Michigan State as an undergraduate and received his bachelor's degree in health education in 1984. While at MSU, he began working in the NFL when he served training camp internships with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers.

Throughout his career, Bellamy has worked with 14 members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame: Fred Dean, Joe Gibbs, Darrell Green, Russ Grimm, Charles Haley, Michael Irvin, Ronnie Lott, Art Monk, Joe Montana, Andre Reed, Jerry Rice, Deion Sanders, Bruce Smith, and Bill Walsh.

Prior to attending Michigan State, Bellamy attended Archbishop John Carroll High School in Washington, DC. In recognition of Bellamy's career in athletic training, the school's annual Student Athletic Trainer and Manager of the Year Award is named in his honor.

Bellamy and his wife Sharon have two children-- son Chase, and daughter Ashley.

Masahiro TAKAHAGI

Assistant Athletic Trainer
Methodist University '08

4th Season at Temple

Masahiro "Hagi" Takahagi enters his fourth season with Temple University Sports Medicine staff. His primary responsibilities lie in the prevention, evaluation, treatment, and rehabilitation of injuries to the Owl football team.

Before arriving in Philadelphia, Takahagi served as a seasonal intern athletic trainer with the Washington Redskins during the 2011-12 NFL season.

Hailing from Fukushima, Japan, Takahagi is a 2008 graduate of Methodist University where he received a bachelor's degree in athletic training and sports management. The Dean's List student earned a master's degree in higher education with a concentration in sports management from Auburn University in 2011 while working as a graduate assistant athletic trainer with the 2010 BCS National Champion football team.

Justin MILLER

Senior Director/Academic Support
Muhlenberg '01

6th Season at Temple

Justin Miller enters his sixth season on the Temple University Athletics staff as the Senior Director of the Nancy & Donald Resnick Academic Support Center for Student-Athletes.

Miller is responsible for providing leadership for the Resnick Center staff, which consists of seven academic advisors, two learning specialists, three graduate externs, and over 80 tutors.

Reporting to the Office of the Senior Vice Provost for Undergraduate Studies, the mission of the Resnick Center is to provide superior academic, personal, and professional guidance to support all Temple University student-athletes. Through core values of diversity, integrity and collaboration across the University, the Center strives to inspire student-athletes to learn and succeed to their greatest academic and professional potential.

Under Miller's leadership, Temple's student-athletes earned their first academic year combined GPA over a 3.0 in 2012-13, highlighted by a 3.08 in the spring semester. Also in the spring, 61% of student-athletes earned individual GPAs of 3.0 or greater, including 28% over 3.5, both of which are the highest percentages on record.

Miller came to Temple from the University of South Florida, where he served as the Assistant Athletic Director for Academics & Student-Athlete Development since 2005. He was responsible for overseeing the academic support services for USF's student-athletes, as well as the day-to-day operations of the Academic Enrichment Center (AEC).

A native of Buffalo, NY, Miller attended Muhlenberg College in Allentown, PA. Upon completion of his undergraduate degree in 2001, he worked with the National Consortium for Academics and Sports in Orlando, FL, and subsequently enrolled in the DeVos Sport Business Management Program at the University of Central Florida.

While pursuing his master of business administration and master of sport business management degrees, Miller served as the Research Coordinator for the 2004-05 Racial Gender Report Card and worked with the National Football League's Players' Association in Washington, D.C. Miller has also worked with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the Cleveland Cavaliers and Emmanuel College in Boston, MA.

Miller lives in Philadelphia with his wife Mary and son Wesley (3).

Rich BURG

Asst. AD - Football Communications
St. John's '88

3rd Season at Temple

Rich Burg enters his third year as the Assistant Athletic Director for Football Communications.

Burg, who left the Philadelphia Eagles in 2007 after a decade of service with the organization, most recently served as the president of 5 Star Unlimited, a full-service public relations firm he established upon his departure from the NFL franchise. His company, based in Voorhees, N.J., specialized in the publicity of active and retired professional players with his most notable clients being former Eagles Donovan McNabb and Brian Dawkins.

In his role with the Eagles (1997-07), he managed all media commitments for McNabb, while also facilitating interview requests for most of the other members of the squad. He also created and implemented all media credential policies, coordinated all press box activities and arranged press conferences.

The Brooklyn, N.Y., native was also instrumental in transitioning the organization into a new practice facility in 2001 and Lincoln Financial Field, which also serves as the home of the Temple Owls, in 2003. Twice during his tenure (2002, 2005), he was part of a staff that won the Pete Rozelle Award given by the Pro Football Writers' Association to the NFL's best PR staff.

Burg also served three years (1994-97) as the communications manager for Rainbow Media Holdings Sports in Woodbury, N.Y, where he handled the day-to-day media relations for the first 24-hour sports news channel while also coordinating the publicity efforts for programs airing on 21 regional sports networks.

His first stint at the Eagles was for three years (1988-91), marking his first full-time position in the profession. He had served previously as an intern in the New York Rangers public relations office (1986-88).

A 1988 graduate of St. John's University, Burg resides in Voorhees, N.J., with his wife Carol and daughter Skylar.

A dual-sport student-athlete, Merkerson earned his bachelor's degree from Syracuse University while competing for the Orange on the football field, as well as the track.

Upon graduation from Syracuse, he joined the Arizona Cardinals for training camp and ultimately signed with Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League. While in Arizona, Merkerson enrolled at Arizona State University where he completed his master's degree in higher education while working as a mentor for the Sun Devil's football team.

A native of Passaic, NJ, Merkerson works with the Tempe football freshmen student-athletes, focussing on their successful assimilation to university life.

Reid VANDERLINDEN

Academic Advisor for Football
Johns Hopkins '13

1st Season at Temple

Reid Vanderlinden joined the Nancy & Donald Resnick Academic Support Center for Student-Athletes at Temple as an academic advisor for football in the summer of 2015. Vanderlinden comes to the university after completing his master's degree and working in a similar role at Penn State.

At Penn State, Vanderlinden served as a graduate assistant at the Morgan Academic Support Center for Student-Athletes, where he assisted with academic advising and counseling. He assisted the director with academic eligibility under university, Big Ten conference, and NCAA regulations, and also worked as a student-enrichment and community service liaison between academic support and the football team.

Earning a master's degree in higher education, Vanderlinden also served as a teaching assistant for two semesters at Penn State. In that role, he assisted the instructor with a first-year transition seminar class. He also spent three summers working at the Penn State Sport Camps.

Vanderlinden is a 2013 graduate of Johns Hopkins University, with a degree in political science. While at Johns Hopkins, he was a four-year letter winner for the football team, helping the Blue Jay's to four-straight Centennial Conference championships.

Quinton SMITH

Asst. Director of Compliance
Indiana '06

3rd Season at Temple

Quinton Smith joined the Temple Athletics staff as an assistant director for Compliance & Student-Athlete Affairs in March, 2013.

Smith joined the Owls after three years at the Patriot League. He was elevated to the associate director for Compliance and Sport Management at the Patriot League in 2012 after serving as the assistant director for two years.

During the 2009-10 academic year, Smith served as an enforcement intern with the NCAA National Office in Indianapolis.

A 2006 graduate of Indiana University, Smith earned a bachelor's degree in sports marketing and management. He earned a master's degree from IU in kinesiology in 2008 while working as an intern with the Hoosiers' athletics compliance department.

At Temple, Smith assists in all compliance and student-athlete affairs efforts. His primary responsibilities include serving as the athletics liaison to admissions, and as the compliance contact for the football program.

Honors: 2015 - Athletic Director's Honor Roll.

2014 (Freshman): One of two freshmen to see significant action on offense/defense ... made collegiate debut in week 1 at Vanderbilt ... was a core special teams player and also contributed on defense ... lead team in tackles in week 3 vs. Delaware State ... made first career start in week 10 vs. East Carolina.

High School: Played DE for coach Monte Thelen at Cherokee Trail in Aurora, CO ... Cougars posted a 10-3 record in 2013 ... had 44 tackles (27 solos), 8 TFL, and 5.5 sacks as a senior.

Personal: Born Jacob W. Martin on 12/11/95 ... mother, Kim Martin, coaches track ... brother, Josh (23), was a rookie free agent for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2013 after attending Columbia University ... in fact, it was Josh who helped Temple land it's first Colorado recruit. The Chiefs employ two former Temple graduate assistants - Britt Reid and Mark DeLeone - on their coaching staff, and it was a conversation between Josh, Britt and Mark that led Temple to take a look at Jacob.

Ranks among the top six in every major passing category at Temple - TDs (33 - 4th), yards (4,401 - 5th), completions (335 - 5th), and attempts (631 - 6th) ... has 13 200+ passing yard games, second only to Henry Buriss (15) and Mike McGann (13).

Honors: 2014 - Davey O'Brien, Manning, Maxwell and CFPA Trophy Watch Lists ... Preseason All-AAC Third Team by Phil Steele Publications ... Preseason All-AAC Third Team by Athlon Sports ... Preseason All-AAC Third Team by College Sports Madness ... Honorable Mention Player of the Week by American Athletic Conference (8/28 at Vanderbilt; 9/6 at Navy; 9/27 at UConn) ... American Athletic Conference Player of the Week by Athlon Sports (9/27/14 at UConn) ... 2013 - Honorable Mention All-Freshman Team from College Football News ... American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Week (11/30).

2014 (Sophomore): Led the Owls to their first victory over an SEC team since 1938, playing just midway through the 3rd quarter in a 37-7 game at Vanderbilt ... had career-high completions (29) and pass attempts (49) vs. Navy ... earned honorable mention Offensive Player of the Week by American Athletic Conference in weeks 1,2 and 4 ... had a streak of 15 straight games with a TD pass snapped vs. #21/19 East Carolina ... tied a career-best with a 75-yard TD pass to Jalen Fitzpatrick at Penn State.

2013 (Freshman): Lost an open battle for the starting QB spot to junior Connor Reilly in the summer ... each day it was apparent that Walker would someday emerge as the starter ... was given an opportunity vs. Fordham but was unimpressive in 2 series ... two weeks later vs. Louisville was 10 of 19 for 182 in just over a half ... took over the starting role the following week at Cincinnati on a prime time, national TV broadcast ... threw his first TD pass (a 35-yarder to Jalen Fitzpatrick) with 0:38 remaining at Cincinnati ... led the Owls to their first win (33-14) under head coach Matt Rhule the following week vs. Army ... at SMU, started the game with 16 consecutive completions and threw for 4 TDs adding his first rushing TD (earned honorable mention QB of the week by CFPA) ... in his first 3 starts threw 6 TD passes of 30+ yards, the Owls had one such pass in the team's first 5 games ... vs. #15 UCF, threw for a career high 382 yards, the third highest mark in school history surpassed only by Henry Burris' 445 in 1996 (Pittsburgh) and 392 in 1994 (Syracuse) ... his 75-yd TD pass to WR Robby Anderson is his longest ... saved his best performance for the season finale at Memphis with 20-32 passing for 328 yards and 4 TDs ... earned American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Week and was a finalist for the Manning Award after leading the Owls to their first conference victory ... set a TU freshman record with 20 TD passes just shy of Brian Broomell's school record 22 set in 1979 ... his 2,084 passing yards tied Henry Burris for 4th best single-season mark in school history ... finished the season with 7 straight starts, all in which he eclipsed the 200-yard passing plateau.

High School: Dual-threat QB for coach John Quinn at Elizabeth HS where he was a teammate of fellow Owl Jahad Thomas ... 2012 Newark-Star Ledger State Offensive Player of the Year ... helped team to the 2012 state title ... as a junior was one of the state's most accurate passers ... went 120-of-189 (63.5 percent) for 2,168 yards and 18 TDs ... in the NJSIAA sectional final against Piscataway, threw for 257 yards and 3 TDs while rushing for 199 yards and a TD ... four-year starter ... participated in the North-South Game ... also played basketball ... team reached the 2012 Group 4 final.

Personal: Born Phillip Walker, Jr. on 2/26/95 ... parents are Tamicha Drake and Phillip Walker, Sr. ... sport and recreation management major.

2014 SEASON REVIEW

1 Temple 37, Vanderbilt 7
August 28, 2014
Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville, Tenn.

	1	2	3	4
Temple (1-0)	7	14	13	3	37
Vanderbilt (0-1)	0	7	0	0	7

NASHVILLE - After an hour and 37 minute lighting delay, the Temple defense decided to light up Vanderbilt Stadium in a 37-7 stunner of a win. The night was highlighted by a stifling performance by the defense, which included two forced fumbles by sophomore DL Averee Robinson and only allowing the Commodores to 107 total yards in the first half. Overall, the defense forced seven turnovers, including three interceptions - the same total they had all last season.

With the win, Temple recorded its first victory over an SEC team since a 20-12 win at Florida on 12/3/38.

The Owls were the first to score after Nate D. Smith forced a Vanderbilt fumble, which was recovered by Robinson at the Vanderbilt 40. From there, a four play, 40 yard drive ended with a 35-yard pass on 4th-and-5 from QB P.J. Walker to junior WR Brandon Shippen, the first catch of his career.

The 'Dores would catch a break after freshman punter Alex Starzyk was unable to get a grip on a high snap. Oren Burks recovered the fumble in the end zone, tying up the game.

Once the Owls got the ball back and Walker had completed a pass to WR Khalif Herbin, the ball was put back into the 'Dores hands, as the ball was stripped and Jake Sealand recovered at midfield. Vanderbilt was unable to capitalize on the mishap.

With a little over two minutes left before the half, Walker was able to launch a rocket to WR Jalen Fitzpatrick in the endzone, following Temple second successful 4th down attempt, an 11-yard completion to WR Nate Hairston on 4th-and-7.

Vanderbilt had the ball back following the Temple touchdown, but new Vandy QB Stephen Rivers was sacked and Robinson recovered his second fumble of the night, running it 55-yards for the touchdown, making the halftime score 21-7 in favor of the Owls.

The third quarter started with Vanderbilt receiving the ball, but they were unable to score, as Hayden Lekacz's field goal attempt went wide left.

Once again, the Owls shined through the rest of the third quarter, as Jahad Thomas was able to recover a fumbled punt catch by Darrius Simms. This set up Austin Jones' field goal to make the score 24-7. Vanderbilt decided to switch up their quarterbacks again, bringing Johnny McCrary into the game. However, his first pass was intercepted by DB Tavon Young.

Walker was able to run the ball three yards in for another Temple touchdown. On the next Vanderbilt possession, Young made his second interception but the Owls settled for a Jones field goal on the drive.

Vanderbilt once again hit a sour mark, after the kickoff was fumbled and Artrel Foster was able to recover it. However, the Owls were unable to score as Jones was unable to put his kick through the uprights on the first play of the 4th quarter.

The night ended for the Owls with a Tyler Mayes field goal, which sealed the deal at 37-7.

2 Navy 31, Temple 24
September 6, 2014
Lincoln Financial Field, Philadelphia, Pa.

	1	2	3	4
Navy (1-1)	10	7	14	0	31
Temple (1-1)	7	7	3	7	24

PHILADELPHIA - A little over a week after Temple lit up Vanderbilt Stadium, the team seemed to dim a little in a 31-24 loss to Navy. The defense could not contain Navy QB Kennan Reynolds and the Midshipmen's explosive offense in the Owls home opener, in front of 28,408 fans.

The Owls allowed the Midshipmen to rush for 487 yards on 63 carries, while Reynolds was 4-8 for 30 yards and no touchdowns in the air.

For the Owls, the game started off strong, as Sharif Finch was able to force a fumble during Navy's first possession and recover the ball in the end zone. Finch also had another fumble recovery in the second quarter.

On the ground, the Owls were able to rack up 156 yards, with QB P.J. Walker leading the herd, with 13 carries for 71 yards. Walker also went 29-49 and threw for 240 yards and two touchdowns, including one to Romond Deloatch in the very back of the end zone. Originally, the call was that Deloatch was out of bounds, but a review of the play saw the Owls collect a score.

Walker had his pass picked off by Parrish Gaines in the end zone with less than a minute left in the first. From that turnover, Navy was able to capitalize and score its second touchdown of the game.

Two seniors led the Owls both statistically and emotionally as Temple mounted a comeback after being down 31-14. Kenny Harper led the team with eight receptions for 64 yards, while also picking up 55 yards on 13 carries. Jalen Fitzpatrick caught five passes for 59 yards and one touchdown.

Defensively for the Owls, LB Nate D. Smith led the team with 13 tackles (9 solos), while LB Tyler Matakevich had 11 solo tackles and a forced fumble. However, the struggles were there for Temple, as it allowed 27 first downs, 24 on rushing plays, and didn't force a Navy punt until early in the fourth quarter. Reynolds proved to be the "tremendous player" that head coach Matt Rhule described earlier in the week.

Navy had three fumbles, all of which were recovered by Temple. On their second field goal attempt, Nick Sloan missed wide right from the Temple 26-yard line, which allowed the Owls to try and get down the field to tie the game before the quarter ended.

For the Owls, freshmen kickers didn't melt under the pressure. Alex Starzyk had three punts of over 50 yards, including one for 62 yards, and Austin Jones made three PATs and one field goal from 28 yards.

Temple went four of five in fourth-down conversions and scored in three of its four trips to the red zone. The team, however, committed six penalties for 56 yards. The Owls only had one fumble, which was committed by OL Brendan McGowan as the Owls attempted to score with laterals with no time left in the game.

Lincoln Financial Field, Philadelphia, Pa.

Temple (2-1)	28	21	3	7	59

PHILADELPHIA - An explosive first half by Temple, that saw a school record 49 point output, gave them a 59-0 victory against FCS opponent Delaware State (0-4). The 59 point victory was the largest margin the Owls have ever won by in the modern era (Temple beat Holy Cross 56-0 in 1974).

The Owls (2-1) were able to score touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams. RB Kenneth Harper scored the first offensive touchdown with a two-yard run, Sharif Finch intercepted the ball for a 65 yard return, and Sam Benjamin blocked a punt that Artrel Foster was able to scoop up for a 15 yard touchdown for the first Temple score.

There were a lot of "firsts" that occurred within the game. TE Saledeem Major had his first career catch in the second quarter, WR Khalif Herbin had his first career touchdown that came on an 84-yard punt return (the second longest in TU history), and DB Khiry Lucas collected the first interception of his Temple career. RB Hassan Dixon's first career touchdown came with 10:54 left in the game, two days after he found out his brother, former Temple defensive lineman Raheem Brock, was inducted into the Temple Sports Hall of Fame in October.

QB P.J. Walker went 10-14 for 127 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions in the first half of the game. QB Connor Reilly came on in relief in the second half, going 6-6 for 52 yards.

Harper led the team in scoring with 12 points. In addition to his two-yard run, Harper caught a five-yard pass from Walker in the second quarter. Freshman RB David Hood capped off the team's rushing with eight carries for 62 yards in his first game as a Temple Owl. The team totaled 172 yards and three touchdowns on the ground.

LB Tyler Matakevich, who had two tackles in the game, said that the victory and dominating team performance is something that the team is starting to work hard on.

"It was a great feeling. This year it's just the standard. We just have to play our process and do our job, and that's what we've been doing," said Matakevich.

Temple's defense registered nine tackles for a loss, totaling 20 yards. Delaware State collected just 93 total yards on offense, 67 of them net passing with QB Gilbert Rivera going 9-19 with three interceptions. This was the Owls second game of the season with three interception (first was at Vanderbilt). The Hornets were also forced to punt nine times.

With this victory, Temple had its first shutout since October 2011 against Buffalo (35-0); scored 60 or more points in a game since November 2013, when the Owls beat Army, 63-32; and scored 20 or more points in a half since last year's contest at Memphis, when they had 24 points in the second half.

Rentschler Field, East Hartford, Conn.

Temple (3-1)	7	0	23	6	36
UConn (1-4)	0	3	7	0	10

EAST HARTFORD - Temple emerged victorious against the UConn Huskies, 36-10, to open American Athletic Conference play. The Owls moved to 3-1 while the Huskies fell to 1-4.

UConn opened with a strong drive, moving the ball 54 yards in 15 plays and holding the ball nearly 10 minutes. However, on 3rd-and-5 from their 21 yard line, QB Chandler Whitmore's pass was intercepted by DB Tavon Young who returned the ball 93 yards for an Owls' touchdown. It was Young's third pick of the season and the sixth of his career. The 93-yard return was the second longest in school history.

The two teams spent most of the rest of the first half exchanging punts with neither team mounting a drive of more than 20 yards. Both teams were hampered by special teams miscues – Temple with a muffed punt return resulting in a missed FG attempt by UConn. On the final drive of the half, the Huskies managed a 30-yard field goal by Bobby Puyol ending the half at 7-3. It was the first points allowed by Temple after six shutout quarters.

The second half kickoff was mishandled by returner Khalif Herbin and recovered in the end zone by UConn. However, an offsides penalty by the Huskies forced a rekick. Temple took that kick and marched down the field for a TD in six plays capped by a 42-yard pass from P.J. Walker to Jalen Fitzpatrick. Walker was 4-4 on the drive for 70 yards. For Fitzpatrick, it was his fourth straight game with a TD. He would finish the game with six catches for 108 yards, his second 100-yard performance, and put him over the 1,000 mark for his career.

The Owls started to show momentum in the third quarter, as Walker completed a series of sharp passes and the next drive finished with a straight up the middle run by Walker to make the score 21-3.

Temple's defense rejoined the scoring party when CB Sean Chandler had a strip sack that Praise Martin-Oguike recovered and raced 11-yards to the end zone.

UConn struck back with its own score, a 74-yard touchdown pass from Whitmer to RB Arkeel Newsome. It was the first time the Owls allowed a passing touchdown this season and the first TD allowed after holding the opponent out of the end zone for seven quarters.

Temple's next drive stalled but punter Alex Starzyk was able to pin the Huskies at their own 2-yard-line. On UConn's first play, LB Tyler Matakevich sacked Whitmer in the end zone for a safety, bringing the score to 30-10. Matakevich, a Stratford, CT, native had seven tackles to go with the sack and safety in his homecoming.

The fourth quarter was highlighted by kicker Austin Jones with field goals of 47 and 34 yards. Backup safety Nate L. Smith set up that final score with his first career interception. Once again Temple won the turnover battle (3:1) and added to their NCAA leading total (17).

PHILADELPHIA - Similar to the last time the teams met in 1988, the day was met with rain.The forecast improved for Temple, however, after a 35-24 win at Lincoln Financial Field in front of a Homecoming crowd of 25,340. The Owls improved to 4-1 for just the fifth time in the Modern Era (since 1971).

Temple went into the game looking to improve the way the offfense started in recent games and seemed to do just that. On the opening drive of the game, Temple scored on a three play, 79-yard drive, sparked by a 68-yard run by RB Jahad Thomas down the sideline. From the Tulsa eight-yard line, RB Kenneth Harper marched into the end zone for the first Temple score.

After a sack of QB P.J. Walker and a partially blocked punt, Tulsa evened the score at 7-7 on a three play, 52-yard drive that took 58 seconds to complete.

On the kickoff, Thomas fumbled the ball with Tulsa recovering it on the 31-yard line. The Golden Hurricane could not capitalize on the turnover, after a facemask call and sack of Dane Evans by Praise Martin-Oguike.

Walker was able to launch a 37-yard pass to WR Jalen Fitzpatrick as well as a 21-yard pass to Harper to get down to the Tulsa five-yard line. After an incomplete pass to WR Romond Deloatch in the back of the end zone the Owls brought their field goal unit out. Instead of three, the Owls faked the kick and collected a touchdown after holder Connor Reilly rushed for three yards.

To continue the battle, Tulsa had its own nine play, 62-yard scoring play to tie the game up 14-14. Evans hit Mendel Dixon with a 9-yard pass to even up the score.

On the ensuing possessions, Walker tossed an interception, giving Tulsa good field position at the Temple 39-yard line. After getting to the Owls 29-yard line, Tulsa RB Zack Langer was tackled by Martin-Oguike to force a Golden Hurricane field goal. However, Carl Salazar's kick hit the right upright.

Late in the second quarter, the Owls came up big on 4th-and-1 stop at the Tulsa one-yard line, after LBs Nate D. Smith and Tyler Matakevich were able to stuff Langer at the goal line.

From the end zone, Walker was able to launch a 64-yard pass from the Temple 18-yard line to RB Jaime Gilmore. Walker then launched another pass to Fitzpatrick for 13 yards, which then setup a five yard run by Walker for the third Temple touchdown.

In the first half alone, Matakevich had 12 tackles and finished the game with 14 tackles, 10 solo, two TFLs, and one pass breakup.

To start the second half, the Golden Hurricane marched down the field for 76-yards, capped off by a 29-yard touchdown pass from Evans to WR Keevan Lucas.

Temple (4-2)	3	7	0	0	10
Houston (4-3)	10	7	14	0	31

HOUSTON – In a battle between two of the best teams in forcing takeaways this season, Houston clearly had the upper hand with a 4-0 advantage. Houston proved that Texas is home to the Friday Night Lights walking away with a 31-10 victory in primetime at TDECU Field.

Both sides of the ball struggled for the Owls. The offense could not capitalize on big plays, even with QB P.J. Walker's 259 yards of passing and two 70+ yard receptions by RB Jahad Thomas. Walker threw three interceptions and fumbled the ball away at the one yard line. On a fourth-and-goal from the two yard line in the fourth quarter, the Cougars stuffed the Owls to end a drive on downs.

The defense, who came into the game with a +1.6 per game turnover margin, was unable to work its magic. For the second straight game, the Owls were unable to force a turnover and allowed 439 offensive yards. Overall, Temple sacked QB Greg Ward, Jr. three times. However, Temple was outnumbered 23-11 in first downs, 82-49 in offensive plays, and 42:33-17:27 in time of possession.

Walker's three interceptions are the most he's thrown in a single game On Walker's first pick, DB Trevon Stewart returned it 29-yards for a score. Walker finished the night 12-29 for 259 yards with one touchdown. The lone Owls touchdown came in the second quarter, when Walker tossed a 39-yard pass to WR Keith Kirkwood in the end zone. On the ground, Walker rushed eight times for 49 yards.

It was Walker's fumble that proved to be the turning point of the game. After Thomas dashed 74-yards with a screen pass and was pushed out at the 2-yard line, Walker tried to pound it in on a QB sneak which would have tied the score at 17. While stretching to cross the plain, Houston punched the ball out for a touchback.

In the first quarter, Thomas also took a screen pass 72-yards. Thomas finished the night with 199 overall yards, which came on a team-leading three catches for 150 yards and seven carries for 49 yards.

Thomas is the third Owl to have a 100-yard receiving game this season; WR Jalen Fitzpatrick had 100-yards games in game 4 at UConn and game 5 against Tulsa when he was joined by RB Jamie Gilmore. Fitzpatrick had his streak at five consecutive games with a touchdown reception ended.

In the back of the end zone, Kirkwood caught his first career touchdown pass as an Owl. This was only Kirkwood's second game played, as he was cleared by the NCAA to compete last Friday before the game against Tulsa.

LB Stephaun Marshall collected his first career sack, while DLs Matt Ioannidis (1.0), Brandon Chudnoff and Hassan Reddick (0.5 each) also got in on the action.

UCF (5-2)	17	10	7	0	34

ORLANDO - The taste of last week's loss to Houston couldn't escape the Owls' mouth as UCF handed Temple its second straight loss, 34-14 in front of a crowd of 39,554 at Bright House Networks Stadium in Orlando. The only bright spot in the game was on special teams, with two blocked punts on back-to-back drives by DB Sam Benjamin and LB Michael Felton in the second quarter. Benjamin was able to scoop up the ball and run it six yards into the end zone for an Owls' score.

Offensively, the team struggled throughout the game. In the first half, the team only gathered six yards rushing on 10 carries, 59 passing yards, and allowed 27 points to be scored, which is the most points the Owls have allowed in a half since 2013's game against UConn. The second half wasn't any better, as QB P.J. Walker started the drive by tossing an interception. Walker finished 15-28 on the day for 111 yards, with two interceptions and one touchdown on a three yard pass to WR Romond Deloatch. Walker shared the responsibilities on the night with QB Connor Reilly, who finished 4-9 for 25 yards and one interception.

For the first time in two games, the Owls' were able to create turnovers, forcing two fumbles; this now raises the Owls takeaways to 19 on the season. DE Praise Martin-Oguike forced the ball out at the Temple 13, which was recovered by DL Averee Robinson. While the offense wasn't able to make much of the turnover, another fumble gave the Owls the ball at the UCF 15, after WR J.J. Worton muffed a punt, recovered, but ultimately had DE Sharif Finch strip the ball out of his hands. Again, the offense was unable to make anything of the play as Walker threw an interception in the end zone.

LB Tyler Matakevich lead the team with 13 tackles, 10 solo, and one tackle for loss. In addition to his forced fumble and recovery, Finch finished the night with seven tackles, five solo and two for a loss, one broken up pass and one quarterback hurry.

The defense also allowed four of five red zone opportunities to end in two touchdowns and two field goals. The Owls entered the game with the number one red zone defense in the country, allowing only 56.3 percent of chances to end in points.

UCF controlled the battle throughout the whole game. QB Justin Holman went 25-39 for 336 yards and two touchdowns, including a 54 yard TD pass to WR Breshad Perriman; Perriman finished the night with seven catches for 146 yards. Holman's passing yardage is the most passing yards allowed by the Owls all season. On the other side of the ball, the Knights sacked Walker three times and Reilly once, bringing the total number of sacks allowed this season to 12.

PHILADELPHIA- In the rain and cold of the first November day, the forecast turned beautiful for the Temple Owls who knocked off the #21/19 East Carolina Pirates 20-10. This is the first time the Owls have upset a ranked team at home and just the third time overall. The Owls won at #16 Pitt, 24-21, in 1987 and defeated #14 Virginia Tech, 28-24 in 1998.

The Owls defense seemingly owned the game, forcing five turnovers. DL Praise Martin-Oguike earned numerous player of the week honors after recording a career-high 1.5 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and a blocked field goal attempt. In the first quarter he forced a fumble which was recovered and returned by DB Tavon Young for a 63-yard touchdown. He forced another later in the game, which was recovered by LB Tyler Matakevich. DB Will Hayes also had two recoveries, after LB Nate D. Smith stripped the ball from RB Breon Allen and after QB Shane Carden fumbled the ball. DB Boye Aromire also had a strip and recovery in the fourth quarter.

On the other side of the ball, the Temple offense did their job protecting the ball not allowing a turnover for the first time this season. Temple accounted for just 135 yards of total offense, but RB Kenneth Harper was able to find the end zone twice. QB P.J. Walker was held to only 70 yards of passing yards, completing 7of 19 passes. Unfortunately, it was also the first game where Walker did not throw a touchdown pass, ending his streak at 15 straight games.

Matakevich had 16 total tackles in the game, all of which were solo. This ties an individual game record set by Lance Johnstone in 1995. DB Sean Chandler was the second leading tackler on the team with 12 solo tackles.

Martin-Oguike, in addition to his three forced fumbles and blocked field goal, picked up four tackles, three solo, 3.5 TFLs, and 1.5 sack.

In the first half of the game, the Pirates (6-2, 3-1) dominated in every aspect on offense, totaling 428 yards of offense on 88 plays and 30 first downs, which overshadowed the Owls' 10. However, the Owls held East Carolina to only a field goal in the first 30 minutes of play. The last time the Pirates were held without a touchdown in any half was October 12, 2013 at Tulane; the score at the half was 6-6 and the Green Wave went on to win 36-33 in triple overtime.

Carden finished the day 24-41 for 217 yards. The Pirates lone touchdown came on a two-yard run by RB Mrquez Grayson. This was the second score the Owls have allowed to come in the fourth quarter, but the first touchdown to be scored in the final 15 minutes since week 11 against UConn in 2013.

WR Justin Hardy entered the game averaging 111.3 receiving yards per game, but was held to only 35 yards on four catches in the game. RB Chris Hairston was the Pirates leading rusher on 21 carries for 153 yards.

9 Memphis 16, Temple 13
November 7, 2014
Lincoln Financial Field, Philadelphia, Pa.

Memphis (6-3)	0	10	3	3	16
Temple (5-4)	10	0	0	3	13

PHILADELPHIA- Sophomore Jake Elliott connected on a 31-yard field goal as time expired to lift Memphis to a 16-13 win over Temple at Lincoln Financial Field. The game winner came on the Tigers' longest drive from scrimmage, 66 yards on 12 plays, against a tough Temple defense. Overall, Elliot made three field goals.

The Memphis drive came on the heels of a 46-yard field goal by Temple's Austin Jones, who tied the game at 13 with 2:46 remaining. Jones, who also made a 43-yard field goal on the game's opening drive, missed one from 37 yards wide right two possessions earlier.

The Owls jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the game as senior RB Kenneth Harper broke free on his longest career run from scrimmage, 75 yards to paydirt.

Temple could easily have extended its lead on its next drive, as it marched 57 yards on eight plays to the Tiger 24 before QB P.J. Walker (16-37-1, 140 yds) was picked off at the 11-yard line by Andrew Gaines.

At the same time the Owls' defense was holding the conference's best scoring team (36.2 ppg.) scoreless. Temple held Memphis to just one first down on four of its first five drives, while the Tigers missed a 45-yard field goal on their other possession.

Things changed when the Tigers Mose Frasier blocked Alex Starzyk punt and recovered on the Temple 31. The Owls' defense held strong, and Memphis had to settle on a 42-yard FG four plays later to make it 10-3.

After a 12-yard first down pass to WR Jalen Fitzpatrick, who would end up leaving the game due to an ankle and knee injury on the next series, Starzyk sent a rugby-style punt just 16 yards downfield while scrambling, giving Memphis the ball at its own 41.

QB Paxton Lynch connected with Frazier on a 42-yard pass play to the Temple 17, and two plays later found senior WR Brandon Hayes in the end zone for a 17-yard TD catch to tie the game with just under four minutes to play in the half.

Neither team mounted much offense in the third quarter until the Tigers benefitted from a muffed punt by John Christopher with 3:04 on the clock to take over at the Owls 10. The Owls defense, which held the league's top rushing team (206 ypg. entering play) to just 82 yards on 40 carries, stonewalled the visitors. Elliott was true from 27 yards out to give the Tigers a 13-10 advantage with 1:39 remaining in the quarter.

Memphis then muffed a punt at the start of the fourth quarter that was recovered at the Tiger 26. Following a 7-yard drive, Jones came out for the tying field goal, but a high snap resulted in his kick sailing wide.

The Owls finally were able to tie the game on their final drive, which was set up by a nice 21-yard punt return by Nate L. Smith to the Temple 43.

Walker hit Romond Deloatch and Colin Thompson for first down receptions, the last resting on the Memphis 36. Walker then found Harper for 7 yards, on a third-and-10 play to set up Jones for his 46 yarder.

Lynch, who was unable to solve the Owls stingy defense all game, masterfully led his Tigers on a 12-play, 66-yard drive, eating away the final 2:40 of the contest. Elliot was perfect on his 31-yarder to give the visitors the victory.

10 Penn State 30, Temple 13
November 15, 2014
Beaver Stadium, State College, Pa.

Temple (5-5)	3	0	10	0	13
Penn State (6-4)	3	3	14	10	30

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Five second half turnovers and two quick rushing touchdowns spoiled Temple football's hopes of a win at Penn State as the hosts posted a 30-13 win in front of 100,173 fans at Beaver Stadium.

After a half that saw both teams defenses dominate, Penn State broke off two long runs on its second possession of the third quarter, the first a 37-yarder by Bill Belton with Akeel Lynch running 38 yards to paydirt on the next play to make it 13-6. Those two runs came immediately after the Owls had tied the game at 6-all on a 25-yard field goal by Austin Jones. The field goal was set up by junior LB Tyler Matakevich's first interception of the season.

Temple QB. P.J. Walker, who was picked off four times, was intercepted on the next possession by Adrian Amos, who returned it to the TU8. Belton rushed eight yards for the touchdown, giving the Nittany Lions a 20-6 lead in less than two minutes after Jones tied it.

The Owls answered on the very next play as Walker connected with senior WR Jalen Fitzpatrick for a 75-yard touchdown to cut the deficit in half. Fitzpatrick's catch was remarkable in that he was a game-time decision due to injuries suffered the previous week.

Temple's defense, which played well despite the score, forced the Penn State offense into a three-and-out on its next possession. With the Owls' offense taking over on their own 30, Walker made a nifty scramble for a 20-yard run to midfield. Three plays later, however, he was intercepted by Christian Campbell.

Again the Owls' defense forced a punt, but Walker was intercepted on a third down play from the TU17 by Grant Haley, who returned it for a back-breaking touchdown to make it 27-13 with 13:57 remaining.

The Nittany Lions would tack on a Sam Ficken 21-yard field goal following a fumbled snap on the Owls ensuing possession to account for the final score,

The first half was evenly played, with both squads defenses shining. Penn State marched down the field on its opening drive, moving the ball 64 yards on 12 plays. A holding penalty negated a Belton 3 yd. TD run so PSU had to settle on a 29-yard Ficken field goal.

That would be the only real drive that either offense would muster over the first 30 minutes as both defenses were in shutdown mode.

That turnover was followed by the only TU offense of the half. Walker connected on two first down passes, the first to WR Brandon Shippen (13-yds) and then WR John Christopher (16-yds) to the Nittany Lion 12. That set up a 31-yard FG by Jones to tie the game at 3-3.

DB Tavon Young, who was injured late in the Memphis loss, made a huge interception at the Temple 35, returning it 25 yards to the PSU 40. The Owls could not move the ball, but the play helped the Owls in the field position battle. Matakevich led all defenders with 10 tackles at the half, including one of the Owls' four sacks on Christian Hackenberg in the first two quarters.

11 Cincinnati 14, Temple 6
November 29, 2014
Lincoln Financial Field, Philadelphia, Pa.

Cincinnati (8-3)	0	14	0	0	14
Temple (5-6)	3	0	3	0	6

PHILADELPHIA- Temple's defense held the American Athletic Conference's most potent offense to season lows for points and yards, but the Owls' offense could only muster two field goals in falling to Cincinnati, 14-6. The Owls defense held the Bearcats to 255, nearly 100 yards below their previous season low of 352 yards (in a 41-14 loss to Memphis) and over 200 yards below its season average of 473.8. Cincinnati also had a season low 14 first downs and tied a low with 14 points.

After neither team was able to mount much offense on their first two possessions, P.J. Walker connected with TE Colin Thompson for 39 yards down the left sideline to the UC11. The Owls had to settle for a 30-yard Austin Jones FG when Walker's pass to WR Jalen Fitzpatrick could not be hauled in on a third-and-11 play.

Temple's lead, however, would be brief. After the Owls' defense held Cincinnati to a three-and-out on its ensuing possession, Walker fumbled the ball while scrambling with Leviticus Payne recovering on the TU3. WR Mekale McKay then hauled in a pass from Gunner Kiel in the end zone to give UC a 7-3 lead.

Walker quickly moved the ball into UC territory on the Owls next drive, hitting Fitzpatrick (16 yds), Brandon Shippen (17 yds) and Romond Deloatch (18 yds) on long first down plays. LB Nick Temple then sacked Walker twice over the next three plays, the last for a loss of 15 yards to force a punt.

Cincinnati showed a glimpse of its potent offense on its final drive of the half. Kiel connected on five of six passes, the last for 20 yards to WR Shaq Washington to the Temple 20. RB Mike Boone then broke off a 14 yard run and followed that two plays later with a one-yard TD rush to make it 14-3.

Walker used his legs (12 rushes, 33 yds) to jumpstart the Owls' offense to start the second half. After the Temple defense forced a punt, Walker rushed for 26 yards on the first play to give the Owls a first down on the Temple 46. He followed that with a four-yard run on 4th-and-2 to keep the drive alive. Three plays later he picked up another first down on a seven yard rush, and then hit Jahad Thomas for an 11-yard first down on a screen play. But with the ball on the UC 17, the drive stalled and Temple had to settle for a 31-yard Jones field goal to cut the deficit to 14-6.

Forcing turnovers has been a specialty of this Temple team, and the Owls were able to do it again as DB Boye Aromire stripped the ball from WR Chris Moore on the kickoff and recovered the fumble at the Bearcat 18.

Again the Owls were unable to move the ball in the red zone. RB Kenneth Harper carried for three yards then Walker broke off a six-yard run before stumbling just short of a first down. He then overthrew Thompson in the end zone, bringing Jones out for another field goal attempt. The freshman kicker missed wide right on the 27-yard attempt to keep it at 14-6.

Kiel connected with RB Rod Moore for a 31-yard pass play to the Temple 32. But Sharif Finch made the hit of the day to stop the drive when he sacked Kiel for a 17-yard loss to force a punt.

Harper, one of eight Temple seniors playing his final home game, broke a 22-yard run to the Owls 45 on the next possession, but that would prove to be the final first down for the Cherry and White.

Temple (6-6)	0	3	0	7	10
Tulane (3-9)	3	0	0	0	3

NEW ORLEANS - For the fourth time in six seasons the Temple Football team became bowl eligible as the Owls snapped a three-game losing streak with a gutsy 10-3 win at Tulane Saturday night in front of a national ESPN2 audience. However, when bowl bids were announced the following day, Temple was left out.

In a game where neither offense was able to get on track, the Owls finally found the end zone midway through the fourth quarter when P.J. Walker hit WR Romond Deloatch on an 8-yard fade pattern in the left corner of the end zone for the lone and decisive TD.

Temple's defense was again the story as the Owls held the Green Wave to just 266 yards and 14 first downs. The defense helped set up Temple's touchdown as it pinned Tulane inside its five-yard line, almost recording a safety on consecutive plays.

John Christopher returned the Tulane punt, launched from deep in the end zone to the Tulane 25. From there it took the Owls four plays to find paydirt.

Tulane, which had five straight three-and-out drives against the Owls defense, finally moved the ball on its last possession. The Green Wave marched 69 yards on 13 plays, but the Owls stood tall in the red zone. With a first-and-goal at the nine, Praise Martin-Oguike sacked Tanner Lee for a seven-yard loss. Lee then missed on consecutive passes before Avery Williams put an exclamation point on the victory with another sack.

Temple looked like it was about to get into the end zone in the third quarter. Walker moved the ball 58 yards on a solid drive, making two nifty runs to start the possession and then breaking off a 25-yarder to the Tulane 22. After making another seven-yard rush on the next play, he was intercepted in the end zone on a great play by cornerback Lorenzo Doss.

In the first half Tulane was able to pick up first downs on just two of its seven drives. They moved the ball 50 yards on eight plays on its first possession before turning the ball over on downs at the Temple 25 when Lee was inches short after sliding on a 4th-and-8 rush.

With senior QB Nick Montana lining up behind center on what appeared to be a planned one possession for the son of NFL Hall of Famer Joe Montana, the Green Wave ran off a 14-play 57-yard drive to the Owl 10. There the hosts had to settle on an Andrew DiRocco 28-yard field goal that made it 3-0 just before the end of the first quarter.

Temple was a little better than Tulane in terms of moving the ball, with the Owls most effective play the screen pass to RB Jahad Thomas. Walker hit Thomas for a 75-yard pass play at the start of the second quarter. That gave TU the ball at the Tulane 5. The Green Wave defense, however, tackled Walker for a loss of 10 which forced a 35-yard field goal attempt by Austin Jones, however, the freshman hit the right upright.

Two possessions later Temple again moved the ball with Walker hitting Thomas on another screen pass (19 yds). He followed that with first down passes to RB Kenneth Harper (12 yds) and Christopher (13 yds) to the Tulane 23. A pass interference call on WR Jalen Fitzpatrick pushed the ball back to the Tulane 37, but Walker followed that with a dump off to Jamie Gilmore coming out of the backfield for a 19-yard pickup to the Tulane 18. That setup a Jones 37-yard field goal that tied the game.

After another three-and-out by Tulane, the Owls took over at the 50 and Walker again moved the ball down the field. He picked up 12 yards on a QB draw before hitting Fitzpatrick for a 16-yard gain to the Tulane 22. The drive stalled there and Jones was unable to connect on a 39-yard field goal attempt just before halftime.

MATT RHULE FOOTBALL CAMP

The Matt Rhule Football Camp, LLC, will kickoff the 2015 summer camp circuit for a third consecutive season on the campus of Temple University.

Edberg-Olson Hall, the Owls' training facility, will serve as the central location of all camp activities. The camp objective is to teach the basic fundamentals and skills of the game of football. The Temple coaching staff will be assisted by coaches from major universities and colleges and also premier high school coaches from the Northeast. Though the backgrounds of these coaches differ, they all share one common trait; the love of football. The opportunity to work with some of the best teachers that this great game has to offer will give you the best value at under $60 per session) of any camp you will attend this summer!

Visit us on the web at www.CoachRhule.com for more information or contact the football office at 215-204-4694 or via e-mail at football@temple.edu.

BOWL RECORDS

1935 Sugar Bowl

#13 Tulane 20, #3 Temple 14
Janary 1, 1935
Tulane Stadium, New Orleans, La.

NEW ORLEANS, La. — The Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans was formed in 1934 to formulate plans for an annual New Year's Day football classic. On Dec. 2, 1934, the Association's executive board selected Tulane (9-1), unbeaten in the South, and unbeaten Temple (7-0-2), coached by Glenn "Pop" Warner, to play in the first game.

The game was a financial and artistic success; however, the final 20–14 result was a heartbreaker for Temple fans. The Owls built up a 14-point lead only to see Tulane score touchdowns in the second, third, and fourth quarters to win the game.

The inaugural Sugar Bowl turned into a contest between two All-Americans—Temple's Dave Smukler (who played all 60 minutes) and Tulane's Claude "Monk" Simons. After the Owls' Danny Testa scored the first touchdown in Sugar Bowl history with a seven-yard TD reception from Smukler. Smukler rushed for second score. With Smukler converting both extra points, the Owls were up 14–0.

On the next kickoff, Johnny McDaniel received the ball and lateraled to Simons, who scampered 85 yards for a touchdown. The Owls held a 14-7 edge at halftime.

Dick Hardy scored the tying touchdown in the third quarter on an 11-yard pass from Bucky Bryan.

With less than three minutes left, Hardy notched the game-winning score on a 43-yard reception in the end zone. Temple blocked the extra point attempt, but was unable to score on its final drive. The hometown team would go on to win the first Sugar Bowl.

Tulane Stadium served as home for the Sugar Bowl until 1975 when it moved to its present site— the Louisiana Superdome.

Temple Notables

- Team captain— Pete Stevens
- Temple took the train from Philadelphia to Baton Rouge, La., a three-day ride.
- During a stop in Atlanta, Ga., the Owls stretched their legs on the station platform and held a 10-minute "workout" with a loaf of bread as a football.
- Six players were ill with the grip ("flu") but made the trip.
- Halfback Horace Mowry, who fractured his wrist against Bucknell in the regular-season finale, was fitted with a special cast for the bowl game. However, he did not start the game.
- The following players saw action in the game: LE Lloyd Wise (60 mins.), LT William Doherty (60), LG John Boyd (28), C Peter Stevens (60), RG Stanley Gurzynski (60), RT James Russell (60), RE Elmer Anderson (45), QB Glenn Frey (60), RHB John Stonik (18), LHB Daniel Testa (35), FB David Smukler (60), LG Thomas Miller (32), RE Joseph Zanin (15), RHB Horace Mowrey (42), LHB Wilfred Longsderff (25).
- Temple and Tulane each received $27,800 from the gate receipts, almost double their guarantee. Admission prices were $1.50 and $3.50.

1979 Garden State Bowl

Temple 28, California 17
December 15, 1979
Giants Stadium, East Rutherford, N.J.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J.— Temple ended its most successful season with its first-ever bowl victory. It was the Owls' 10th win of the year (a team record) and earned Wayne Hardin's team a spot in the AP and UPI Top 20. Temple was ranked 17th in both polls, the first time the Temple football team was nationally ranked in the final wire service polls.

Appearing in their first bowl game in 45 years, the Owls jumped out to a quick 21–0 lead in the first quarter, scoring on their first three possessions. Kevin Duckett scored the first two TDs on eight and four-yard runs. QB Brian Broomell connected on a seven-yard pass to Wiley Pitts for the third score. TU had 193 yards of total offense, including 150 yards rushing, in the opening stanza.

Temple then withstood a 17-point California rally before clinching the game with a 14-play, 78-yard scoring drive over 5:58 in the fourth quarter. Broomell tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear for the win.

The telling statistic of the game was the rushing total, with Temple gaining 300 yards on the ground while holding the Golden Bears to only 23 yards.

The game's Most Valuable Player, Temple's Mark Bright, gained 112 of those yards on 19 carries, while backfield teammate Kevin Duckett ran for 92 yards and two touchdowns. Temple quarterback Brian Broomell joined in the act by tossing touchdown strikes to Wiley Pitts and Gerald Lucear.

Temple Notables

- Team captains— Brian Broomell, Mike Curcio, Casey Murphy
- Temple was ranked No. 17 in the United Press International and the Associated Press final polls.
- Eight members of the 1935 Sugar Bowl team attended the game as guests of Temple President Marvin Wachman.
- During their bowl trip, the Owls toured New York City, eating at Mama Leone's and attending the musical The 1940s Radio Hour on Broadway.
- Temple received a $225,000 payout from the gate receipts. Admission prices were $5 and $12.
- After four years (1978-81), the Garden State Bowl was discontinued. That led to the formation of the Kickoff Classic, held at Giants Stadium to begin the football season.

2009 Eagle Bank Bowl

UCLA 30, Temple 21
December 29, 2009
RFK Stadium, Washington, D.C.

UCLA (7-6)	7	3	7	13	30
Temple (9-4)	7	14	0	0	21

WASHINGTON, D.C. – UCLA scored 23 unanswered points to pull off a come-from-behind win over Temple, 30-21, Tuesday evening in the EagleBank Bowl. The Bruins (7-6) spoiled the Owls' (9-4) first appearance in a bowl since 1979, but not a remarkable season that included a school-record nine-game win streak and a co-regular season Mid-American Conference East Division Championship.

"We are obviously disappointed in the outcome, but I don't want to diminish what these seniors have accomplished in their careers," Temple head coach Al Golden aid. "Unfortunate ending but definitely have to give credit to how UCLA finished the game. We had an excellent game plan. I thought we came out with a lot of energy and a lot of passion…We went after them. I was proud of our kids for doing that, but we made too many mistakes."

A crowd of 23,072, with more than half donning Cherry and White, braved the frigid weather and blustery winds. The Owls had plenty to cheer about in the first half as the offense, directed by junior QB Vaughn Charlton and featuring the freshman backfield combination of Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown, found the end zone three times in building a 21-7 lead.

Making his first start since the Navy win on Oct. 31, Charlton (13-23, 159 yds., 1 TD) completed seven of his first eight passes for 95 yards, none bigger than the 26-yard TD to senior TE Steve Maneri that capped the Owls six-play, 80-yard opening drive.

UCLA answered two possessions later. After Terrence Austin returned a Jake Brownell punt 47 yards to the TU 46, freshman QB Kevin Prince (16-31, 222 yds, 2 TDs) found sophomore SE Nelson Rosario streaking down the left sidelines on the first play for a 46-yard score to tie the game, 7-7.

Temple, which controlled the ball on offense for 21:27 of the 30 minutes of the opening half, started to get its running on track with Pierce and Brown playing tag-team to combine for 94 yards, 61 coming in the second quarter.

Playing his first game since suffering a shoulder injury on the first play of the Kent State game, Pierce gained 86 total yards, 53 rushing on 12 carries and 33 on three receptions. He looked like his old self, especially on the Owls' second scoring drive. He barreled 13 yards up the middle for a first down to midfield and capped it with an 11-yard TD run around right end.

With Temple leading 14-7, junior DB Marquise Liverpool picked off Prince at midfield and returned the ball 21 yards before being pulled down by his facemask.

Starting at their own 15, Temple quickly marched it in with Pierce moving the ball five yards before giving way to Brown, who made three straight rushes, the last up the middle for a two-yard touchdown to give Temple a 21-7 lead with 1:25 remaining in the half.

Both teams exchanged three-and-out possessions that gave the Bruins the ball with 17 seconds left and at their own 47. Prince made two quick first down strikes, the second for 19 yards to Chane Moline, who went out-of-bounds at the Temple 22 with one second on the clock.

Junior PK Kai Forbath, the 2009 Groza Award winner given to the nation's top kicker, converted his 36th straight field goal from within 50 yards to cut the margin to 21-10 at intermission.

Senior Terrence Austin returned the opening kickoff 30 yards to the UCLA 47 and then he capped a six-play Bruin scoring drive with a 32-yard TD reception to cut the margin to 21-17.

When the Owls took the field for their first possession of the second half, Pierce was not with them. Instead he was standing on the sideline in a Temple parka, as he injured his left shoulder and would sit out the half.

Temple had its only real opportunity to score in the half on its opening possession. Two big plays, the first was by Charlton – a 21-yard first down scramble, and the second by Brown, who broke a 29-yarder to the UCLA 18. Three straight rushes by Brown made it fourth-and-one at the UCLA 9. The Owls elected to go for it, but with their big back sidelined, Brown was stopped short, ending the drive.

After that, the Bruins defense, which featured three Associated Press All-Americans, was able to put the clamps on the Owl attack. After gaining 242 yards of total offense and 12 first downs in the first half, Temple managed just four first downs and 40 yards of offense over the final 30 minutes.

The Owls only first down the remainder of the contest came on a roughing the kicker penalty that gave TU the ball at UCLA 40. Charlton then was picked off by first team All-America sophomore FS Rahim Moore, who recorded his nation's leading 10th interception on an acrobatic play defending junior WR Michael Campbell down the right sidelines.

Still, the Cherry and White defense, led by all-MAC performers Dominique Harris, Andre Neblett and Jaiquawn Jarrett, kept the Owls in the contest.

Temple held UCLA without a first down the remainder of the third quarter, and bent at the start of the fourth, before holding the Bruins to a 42-yard field goal by Forbath to make it 21-20 with 12:31 remaining to play.

The Owls defense stopped UCLA on its next possession as Alex Joseph and Muhammad Wilkerson corralled Prince in the backfield on a third and long at midfield. Temple took the ball at its own 18 and after Brown was stopped for a three-yard loss, Charlton was called for intentional grounding setting up a third and 20 from the TU 8. Charlton then was picked off at the line of scrimmage while looking for a short pass on the flat to Joe Jones by Akeem Ayers. Ayers, who would be named the MVP of the game, ran it in from two-yards out to give UCLA its first lead, 28-21.

Things went from bad to worse on Temple's next possession. James Nixon was tackled for a nine-yard loss on the first play. Brown, who finished with a game-high 83 yards on 20 carries, picked up three yards on the next play. Following an incomplete pass Brownell went back to punt, but the ball from center sailed over his head for a safety, making the score 30-21.

UCLA ran out the clock on the ensuing punt to end Temple's best season in three decades.

Pierce, who set the school record for touchdowns in a season (16) with his TD run tonight, and freshman Brandon McManus, who had three extra points, tied for the school single season scoring record with 96 points. They eclipsed the previous mark of 95 points set by PK Don Bitterlich in 1975.

Wyoming (8-5)	0	7	0	8		15

ALBUQUERQUE-- Temple used three one-yard touchdown runs to jump out to a 21-0 lead over Wyoming and never looked back in posting a 37-15 over the Cowboys to win the Gildan New Mexico Bowl on Dec. 17 in front of 25,762. It is the second bowl game victory in program history and first since Temple defeated California, 28-17, in the 1979 Garden State Bowl.

The Owls finished the season on a four-game win streak at 9-4 overall. The win also extended Temple's Senior Class record to 31 wins over the last four seasons.

'I'm awful proud of our seniors, some great accomplishments from them," head coach Steve Addazio said. "That is our first bowl win since 1979 and our ninth win of the year for our seniors, their 31st win. It meant an awful lot to our program and our university."

Sophomore QB Chris Coyer was named the game's Offensive MVP, and senior LB Tahir Whitehead earned Defensive MVP honors. Coyer, showing no ill effects from a shoulder injury suffered in the team's final regular-season game against Kent State, was flawless directing the Temple attack. He completed eight of 12 passes for 169 yards and one touchdown and also rushed for 71 yards on 12 carries.

Whitehead, a second team All-MAC performer, had a team-high 11 tackles, leading an Owl defensive unit that allowed just 267 yards to the Cowboys.

Junior RB Bernard Pierce set the tone early for the Owls. Pierce, who rushed for 100 yards and two touchdowns on the day, had eight carries for 31 yards in Temple's opening drive. His last carry was a one-yard touchdown. That capped a 13-play, 90-yard drive that lasted 6:19 seconds.

Wyoming then marched down the field on an 11-play drive of its own, but junior FS Vaughn Carraway batted away a pass by freshman QB Brett Smith on a third and 16 play. Freshman PK Daniel Sullivan was then wide right on his 49-yard field goal giving the Owls the ball back on their own 31.

Senior WR Joe Jones broke a 35-yard run off a reverse on the first play of the Owls' second drive. It was one of nine straight rushes against the Cowboys 115th ranked rush defense. The last run was another Pierce one-yard TD, to make it 14-0 with 14:28 to play in the half.

Senior CB Kee-ayre Griffin then intercepted a Smith pass and returned it 30 yards to the Wyoming 35. Pierce and Coyer each had 12 yard first down runs before junior RB Matt Brown finished the drive with a one-yard TD run, making it 21-0.

The Cowboys finally got on the scoreboard as Smith connected with freshman WR Josh Doctson on a 21-yard touchdown on a 4th-and-three play with 37 seconds left in the half.

The Owls answered in one play as Coyer found a wide-open senior WR Rod Streater down the right sideline for a 61-yard touchdown to give Temple a 28-7 lead at halftime and momentum heading into the lockerroom.

Temple controlled the game on both sides of the ball in the second half. The only scoring for the Owls came on the foot of junior PK Brandon McManus, who connected on three of three field goals.

Wyoming finally found the end zone again with three seconds on the clock.when Smith hit Kody Sutton for 14-yard touchdown.

Temple Notables

- Temple Captains: #85 DE Morkeith Brown, #77 OL John Palumbo, #43 DE Adrian Robinson, and #2 LB Tahir Whitehead.
- The win was Temple's second bowl win in school history. The Owls won the 1979 bowl, 28-17 over California.
- The win was the ninth win under first-year head coach Steve Addazio. He has the most wins in school history by a first-year head coach. He surpassed Wayne Hardin [1970-82] who had seven wins in 1970.
- Temple finished the 2011 season at 9-4 overall. This is the third consecutive season the Owls have posted at least eight victories and the second time in three seasons TU has won nine games.
- The win extended the school record for most wins (31) by any Senior Class in school history. The previous record was 28 wins from 1928-31. The 19 members of the Senior Class concluded their collegiate careers today.
- Senior DB Kee-ayre Griffin's interception in the second quarter was the fifth of his career and the third of his career. R-freshman Anthony Robey's interception in the second quarter was the first of his collegiate career.
- With 255 rushing yards on the day, Temple set the school record for rushing yards in a season (3,335). The previous record was 2,884 from 2009.
- Temple extended the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season. With three rushing TDs in the game, the Owls finished with 38 rushing TDs this season. The previous record was 29 rushing TDs, set by the 2009 team.
- Pierce added to his career records and finished with 324 career points, 53 career rushing touchdowns, and 54 total career touchdowns. He extended his season records to 27 touchdowns and 162 points.
- With four extra points, junior PK Brandon McManus has made 50 consecutive extra points (PAT), a new season record. He surpassed Ron Fioravanti (1979) who made 48 straight.
- The attendance of 25,762 is the second-largest bowl crowd to watch Temple. The most was 55,493 at the 1979 Garden State Bowl.
- Sophomore QB Chris Coyer (8-12-0, 169 yds 1ytd, 12 carries, 71 yds) was named the game's Offensive MVP, while senior LB Tahir Whitehead (11 tackles) earned Defensive MVP honors.

EVOLUTION OF THE HELMET

THE TEMPLE "T" ONCE AGAIN ADORNS THE FOOTBALL TEAM'S HELMETS, BEGINNING IN 2011. THE HELMET FEATURES A WHITE "T" AND A WHITE FACE MASK ON A CHERRY SHELL. THE HELMET IS STRIKINGLY SIMILAR TO THE ONE THE TEAM WORE FROM 1989-95 AND 2004-06, EXCEPT THERE IS NO LONGER A WHITE STRIPE DOWN THE MIDDLE. THE TRUE SHADE OF THE "TEMPLE CHERRY RED" COLOR WAS ADOPTED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS IN 1996.

FOR 30 STRAIGHT SEASONS, FROM 1966 TO 1995, THE OWLS' HELMETS CONSISTED OF CHERRY SHELLS. TEMPLE SWITCHED TO A WHITE SHELL IN 1996, SPORTING A HELMET ADORNED WITH THE FLYING "DOMINANT OWL" LOGO AND FEATURING A BLACK FACE MASK. THE PROGRAM HAS WORN HELMETS FEATURING BOTH WHITE AND CHERRY SHELLS WITH VARIOUS STRIPES, LETTERING, FACE MASKS AND LOGOS SINCE ITS INAUGURAL SEASON IN 1894.

Lincoln Financial Field

On August 13, 2003, the Philadelphia Eagles and Temple University announced a 15-year pact for the Owls to play their home football games at Lincoln Financial Field. An average of 24,137 fans per game witnessed the Cherry & White in its inaugural season at the venue, a 21 percent increase from the prior year's average.

Lincoln Financial Field, familiarly known as The Linc, is the home stadium of the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles. It has a seating capacity of 68,532 (69,032 with Standing Room Only tickets). The stadium was named in June 2002 when the Lincoln Financial Group paid $139.6 million for naming rights over the next 21 years. It is located in South Philadelphia on Pattison Avenue between 11th and 10th Streets, closer to the area's stretch of Interstate 95 than to Pattison.

In 2011, the stadium became powered with a combination of onsite wind, solar, and dual-fuel generated electricity, making it the world's first major sports stadium to convert to self-generated renewable energy. Approximately $25 million was invested to build the system, saving the Eagles an estimated $60 million in energy costs.

The Pavilion

The Pavilion Athletic Facility, which is utilized by football, field hockey, women's lacrosse, men's and women's soccer, is a 32,000-square foot multi-purpose field. The facility, which is available as an auxiliary training site for the remainder of Temple's 19 varsity athletic programs, features Field Turf XT57, an ideal surface for Temple's varsity teams to train on.

Edberg-Olson Hall

Edberg-Olson Hall is the home of the Temple University football program. Officially dedicated on December 9, 2000, the facility was designed by AP3C Architects of Philadelphia. The building was engineered to not only support the football team's functional requirements, but to enhance the experience through innovative design concepts.

During the season, approximately 250 people will pass through its doors on a daily basis. In 2012, Edberg-Olson Hall underwent a $10 million upgrade with a 15,000-square-foot expansion. The original 23,600-square-foot building contains team and coaches locker rooms, a training room, equipment facilities, coach's offices, a players' lounge, individual position meeting rooms, and a theater-style team meeting room. Opened in July 2012, the upgrade has a strength and conditioning area that expanded from 2,500 square feet to 10,000 square feet. The expansion also features an enlarged sports medicine office with hydrotherapy, a full-service academic support area, and a 3,500-square-foot team function room. An observation balcony runs the length of the building. It is the perfect complement to a gridiron landscape outside featuring over 100,000 square feet of Sprinturf and 24,000 square feet of Astroturf. Eight, 85-foot poles providing 85 candles of white rendition light line the perimeter of the complex. Powder-coated cyclone fences provide privacy.

In 2014, Edberg Olson received a facelift. As part of a $1.5 million capital project that upgraded the locker rooms for all 19 Temple varsity sports, the football facility installed 125 new lockers and flatscreen televisions. In addituion, updated graphics adorn the walls throughout the hallways and in the weight room.

White Jersey / White Pants

The Temple football team boasts the ability to go an entire season without wearing the same uniform. With three different helmet colors, three jerseys and three sets of pants, the Owls can don their Cherry and White colors in at least 27 combinations. That doesn't even take into account three different helmet stickers and various sock patterns, virtually allowing the Owls to wear something new and fresh each game.

UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

Neil D. THEOBALD
President

3rd Year at Temple

Dr. Neil Theobald was named Temple University's 10th president in August 2012. In partnership with an excellent faculty and talented staff, he leads a university that educates more than 38,000 students, employs 15,000 faculty and staff, and operates one of the nation's leading academic medical centers.

Temple has achieved several milestones in Dr. Theobald's early tenure. The university has set both private fundraising and research funding records in each of his first three years. It has also enrolled record numbers of students—with the last two freshmen classes being the most academically qualified and diverse entering classes in Temple history. Temple has been nationally recognized by Kiplinger's as one of the best values among public universities. These achievements have been featured on NPR's Morning Edition, The Chronicle of Higher Education, and other major media outlets. Philadelphia Business Journal named Dr. Theobald its Most Admired Education CEO in 2015.

Dr. Theobald has laid out six commitments that guide University resource allocation:

(1) Address head-on the issue of time-to-degree, which is the primary determinant of student debt at public universities. In his innovative FlyIn4 initiative, students are guaranteed the ability to graduate in four years, keeping their debt to a minimum.

(2) Maintain affordability and commit Temple to be at the forefront of quality undergraduate instruction.

(3) Share Temple's greatest strengths—the expertise, creativity, and energy of its faculty, researchers, and students—to address Philadelphia's two perennial problems: indigent health care and P-12 education.

(4) Drive the regional economy through Temple's research enterprise.

(5) Maintain and increase the diversity that the university is known for. One avenue to do so is the Temple Option under which 1,000 freshmen are admitted each year without standardized test scores.

(6) Educate innovators across the university so that Temple's future alumni remain flexible and productive in a fast-paced, rapidly changing world.

He also has decentralized the university budget to reduce costs and improve efficiency. In addition, Dr. Theobald launched Visualize Temple, a master planning process that seeks to transform the university's central campus.

Dr. Theobald started out like many Temple Owls. Born to working-class parents in Peoria, Ill., he planned to enter an electrician's apprenticeship after high school. However, he won an academic scholarship to Trinity (CT) College and became the first person in his family to attend college, earning a B.A. in economics in 1978. After teaching mathematics and coaching high school baseball, he earned a Ph.D. in education finance from Washington in 1988, winning the Jean Flanigan Award from the American Education Finance Association for the outstanding doctoral dissertation.

Dr. Theobald joined the faculty of the Washington's College of Education after receiving his Ph.D. He helped create the Danforth administrator training program at the UW that is now in its 27th year of operation. His research focused on decentralizing educational funding and modeling educational labor markets. He received the University Council for Educational Administration's Jack Culbertson Award for the most significant contributions by a junior professor and earned tenure in 1993.

Dr. Theobald moved to Indiana University in 1993 to direct the Indiana Education Policy Center, co-funded by the Lilly Endowment and the Indiana General Assembly. His work focused on Indiana's K-12 school funding formula. During his research career, Dr. Theobald published nearly 100 articles, books, and reports on education funding and related fields, which led to more than $7 million in grants and contracts. He was also a 3-time winner of IU's Teaching Excellence Recognition Award.

From 2002-07, Dr. Theobald was Senior Vice Provost for Indiana's flagship campus in Bloomington, where he was responsible for the campus' budget and directed a $1.1 billion capital campaign. Major accomplishments include adding 120 tenure-track faculty members, increasing the financial aid endowment from less than $150 million to more than $550 million, and increasing the mean SAT score of IU Bloomington's incoming class from 1099 to 1203.

From 2007 to 2012, Dr. Theobald was SVP and CFO for IU, where he oversaw a $3.1 billion budget, supervision of HR services for IU's 3,100 faculty and more than 14,000 staff members, and management of the largest student union in the world and one of the five largest student housing systems in the country. During his time as CFO, IU's credit ranking was upgraded to Moody's highest level (Aaa)—making IU one of only eight Aaa-rated public universities in America.

Dr. Theobald enjoys sports—playing intramural softball at Temple each spring—and bicycles to/from work whenever possible. Every fall, he and his wife, Sheona Mackenzie, teach a freshmen seminar on organizational change. They have three children: Roddy, a Ph.D. statistician; Kinnear, a physician; and Mattie, a graduate student. They also have two grandchildren, Jimmy and Lochlynn.

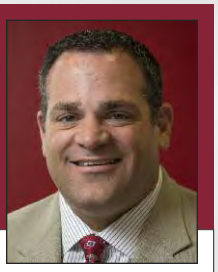
TEMPLE ATHLETICS

Dr. Patrick KRAFT

Director of Athletics
Indiana '00



3rd Year at Temple

On May 26, 2015, Temple University President Neil D. Theobald announced that Dr. Patrick M. Kraft, who served as Temple's Deputy Director of Athletics since 2013, would replace Kevin Clark as Director of Athletics. Earlier that day, the president nominated Clark to the newly created position of Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer.

Kraft and Clark served together at Indiana University where Kraft oversaw marketing and ticketing efforts for all of the Hoosiers' programs. His efforts at Indiana helped increase home football attendance to its highest mark in two decades.

"Pat's expertise, coupled with his enthusiasm for high quality student athletics, is apparent to anyone who has worked with him," said Clark. "I know he is dedicated to producing a student-athlete experience that is every bit on par with the high quality of a Temple education."

"Temple is an extraordinary university and its athletics programs are advancing with tremendous support from our students, faculty, coaches, parents and alumni," said Kraft. "Our athletics programs build greater name recognition for Temple around the region and across the country."

Kraft also served as the sport administrator for the Temple football program, which includes personnel, budgeting, student-athlete conduct and welfare, APR planning, game scheduling, academic monitoring, and student-athlete counseling.

Prior to coming to Temple, Kraft spent two years as the Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director at Loyola University Chicago. At Loyola, he had direct oversight of all aspects of the department's external operations, including the marketing, ticketing, media relations and fundraising components. Kraft played an integral role in Loyola's move from the Horizon League to the Missouri Valley Conference.

In his two years at the school he was able to grow the men's basketball season ticket base by 30 percent with an overall increase of 51 percent in ticket revenue. Additionally, he generated an increase of 400 percent in cash sponsorship to the department while also growing the department's annual giving by 75 percent.

Not limited to just external operations at Loyola, Kraft was responsible for overseeing the day-to-day management of the department's $12+ million budget. He also served as the sport supervisor for men's and women's basketball and was responsible for handling all of the department's business contracts.

At Indiana, Kraft was responsible for the branding and marketing efforts for all of the Hoosiers' programs. He oversaw game production for all of IU's varsity sports and coordinated group, season and single-game ticket sales for football, men's basketball, men's soccer, women's basketball and women's volleyball. In addition, Kraft managed the promotion, marketing, brand enhancement and enforcement of the school's Adidas contract and the Big Ten Network partnership as well as the Learfield Sport Properties multi-media rights agreement with the Hoosiers.

His efforts at Indiana helped increase home football attendance to its highest mark in 17 years, with it also being the third largest football attendance increase among all Division I schools. He also instituted a strategy that saw a 20 percent increase in student ticket sales and the overall highest season ticket base in 13 years.

The Libertyville, Ill., native began his career in 2001 as the corporate sponsorship and promotions coordinator with the Arena Football League. He then spent three years as the business development director with United States Synchronized Swimming (2001-04). He then served four years in higher education, the first three at Indiana (2005-08) as an associate instructor for sports marketing and management and the last as a clinical professor in the school of business administration at Loyola Chicago (2008-09).

Kraft, who played football as an undergraduate at Indiana, has three degrees from the University. He earned a bachelor's degree in sports marketing/management (2000), a master's degree in sports administration (2005) and a doctorate in sports management (2008).

Kraft resides in Cherry Hill, N.J., with his wife Betsy and daughter Annabelle.

TEMPLE ATHLETICS

Craig Angelos, who has served on the athletics senior staff at five different Division I institutions, is Temple University's Deputy Director of Athletics. Angelos joined the staff in July of 2015.

Angelos comes to Temple from Florida International University where he served as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Revenue Enhancement since June 2014. While at FIU, he was responsible for finding new revenue sources for the athletic department and engaging in all aspects of development activities, while helping overall fundraising to a 20% increase.

Angelos is a 24-year veteran of intercollegiate athletics administration, working at five different NCAA Division I universities, as well as the NCAA national office. Before his stint at FIU, Angelos was the Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director at the University of South Florida, overseeing all external areas as well as having oversight of the football program.

Craig ANGELOS

Deputy Director of Athletics
Brigham Young

1st Year at Temple

Prior to USF, Angelos served nine years as the Director of Athletics at Florida Atlantic University from 2003-2012. At FAU, he led the effort to build a $70 million, 30,000 seat football facility, which opened on campus in 2011.

Angelos also held number two positions as the Deputy Athletic Director and Chief Operating Officer at Indiana University and Senior Associate Athletic Director at Miami (Fla.). Prior to his tenure at Miami, Angelos spent three years at the NCAA as a legislative assistant interpreting NCAA rules and regulations.

A graduate of the Creighton University School of Law, Angelos worked for a short time in a mid-sized litigation firm in Los Angeles, Calif. He earned his bachelor's degree from Brigham Young University where he was the starting first basemen on the baseball team and later played in Buttrio, Italy for an Italian professional baseball league.

Angelos and his wife, Kristin, have six children.

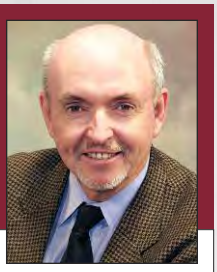
Harry DONAHUE

Radio Play-by-Play
St. Joseph's



21th Season at Temple

The 2015 season marks Harry Donahue's 21th consecutive year as the voice of Temple University football. A Philadelphia native, he has also served as play-by-play announcer for the Owls' men's basketball program since the 2002-03 campaign.

One of the most recognizable voices in the Delaware Valley, Donahue worked as a morning news and sports anchor at KYW Newsradio (1060 AM) since 1979 before retiring in 2014. He first joined the station in 1974 as a freelance reporter and anchor.

Donahue is a well-known broadcaster and an integral part of the Philadelphia sports scene. He has done play-by-play for Eagles preseason games, 76ers basketball contests and college basketball for ESPN's Atlantic 10 Conference Game of the Week. Every Sunday, NFL fans around the country hear Donahue describe NFL Films' highlights that are displayed on stadium scoreboards. He is the voice of NFL.com's weekly highlights. Donahue also hosted "Temple Sports Now," a bi-weekly TV show that featured Owl athletics.

Donahue was the play-by-play voice for the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL. He has also hosted "Center Court," the pre-game, half-time, and post-game shows for the 76ers' telecasts.

Donahue's reporting has earned him two Pennsylvania Associated Press Awards for his coverage of the Philadelphia Phillies' World Series run in 1980. In May 2000, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Donahue is a graduate of Saint Joseph's University. He and his wife Lynda reside in Montgomery County, PA, and have three sons and five grandchildren.

Paul PALMER

Radio Color Analyst
Temple '87

3rd Season at Temple

In 2013, former Temple All-American running back Paul Palmer (1983-86) added the job of color analysis for the Temple Radio Network for all football game broadcasts to his list of accomplishments.

For Palmer it was a return to radio. He served as the Owls' sideline reporter for four seasons (2001-04). Palmer replaced 1974 Maxwell Award winner Steve Joachim, who had to step aside following 13 years as the color analyst for Temple Football due to increased work commitments with his full-time position.

A unanimous first-team All-American in 1986, his senior season, Palmer led the nation in rushing yards (1,866), rushing yards per game (169.6) and all-purpose yards (2,633) that season. Named 1986 ECAC Player of the Year, Palmer set 23 school records and remains the Owls' career leader in rushing attempts (935), rushing yards (4,895), 100-yard rushing games (21), and 200-yard rushing games (6).

Palmer finished second in the 1986 Heisman Trophy race to Miami QB Vinny Testaverde. In 2015, for the fifth straight year, he is on the ballot for the College Football Hall of Fame.

A native of Potomac, MD, Palmer was a first round draft pick by the Kansas City Chiefs where he led the AFC in kickoff return average (24.3 yards per attempt) as a rookie and rushed for 607 yards in two seasons.

Palmer, who resides in Lawnside, NJ, has served as an assistant football coach at Haddon Heights High School for the last eight seasons.

MID WEEK

Interview Requests
All interview requests for players, coaches or staff members should be directed to the Athletic Communications staff.

Practice Regulations
Head coach Matt Rhule and select players will be available for brief interviews following daily practices early in the week. Advance notice is required to the Department of Athletic Communications. Photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot the last 15 minutes of practice. Otherwise, all practices are closed to all individuals except Temple football personnel.

Please make interview requests by Sunday evenings. Player interviews take place on Mondays, Tuesdays & Wednesdays during the season. The Owls practice on Chodoff Field at the Edberg-Olson Hall facility, located at 10th and Diamond Streets.

Weekly Football Release
To access Temple's weekly football release, please log on to www.OwlSports.com. The weekly release will include updated game notes, schedule, depth chart, and game-by-game wrap-ups. Team and individual statistics will be posted to the website as well.

Weekly Media Luncheon
Matt Rhule's weekly media luncheon is held each week at Edberg-Olson Hall on the main campus (10th & Diamond Streets, 2nd floor). Please check the weekly gamenotes for luncheon schedule.

GAME DAY

Credentials
All requests for home games must be made through Athletic Communications. Season credentials should be requested in the preseason and game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to the game. Local media requesting credentials for a road game must have that request into Athletic Communications two weeks prior to the contest (preceding Monday) by submitting in writing on company letterhead by e-mail (rich.burg@temple.edu).

Media Parking
Media parking at Lincoln Financial Field is available on a limited basis. Please contact Rich Burg in Athletic Communications at (215) 204-0876 for availability.

Media Will-Call / Entrance
Media attending games at Lincoln Financial Field must enter on the west side of the stadium (facing 11th St.) across from the Wells Fargo Center. Credentials left at will-call must be picked up at that entrance only.

Press Box Phone (267) 570-4453

Telephone Services
All seat locations and photographer work areas at Lincoln Financial Field have complimentary lines for high-speed Internet access as well as local and 800 telephone service. Wireless internet access is also available and pool phones will be accessible in the press box for outgoing calls. If you need more services, please contact Athletic Communications.

Statistics
Complete individual and team statistics and play-by-play will be distributed throughout the press box at the conclusion of each quarter.

Locker Room Policy
Temple maintains a closed locker room policy.

Post-Game Interview Procedures
Following games, head coaches and players from both teams are made available to the media. Please take the elevator to the street level and proceed across the lobby (to the right of the Touchdown Club). Follow the signs to the media conference rooms, located on the east side of the stadium. Each team will utilize an interview room adjacent to its respective locker room. Please address player requests to the Temple Athletic Communications staff and the visiting school's sports information representative by the 10-minute mark of the fourth quarter.

Taxi Cabs
For transportation to and from Lincoln Financial Field, it is suggested that you call either Checker Cab Co. at (215) 744-8294 or Olde City Taxi at (215) 338-0838.

2015 AMERICAN COACHES WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE

The American Athletic Conference football coaches will hold a weekly teleconference for the media beginning Monday, August 31. The call will take place each Monday during the season. Each coach will be available for approximately 10 minutes. Media members who wish to access the teleconference should contact Chuck Sullivan to receive the dial-in number. The call begins promptly at 11:00am.

For those who are not able to participate during the live teleconference, an archive of Monday's call will be available on the conference website at www.TheAmerican.org.

WEEKLY RELEASES & STATISTICS

Media members may access PDF versions of the complete weekly release, including conference and team-by-team statistics, on TheAmerican.org. Regular updates of the weekly release will be distributed via e-mail from the conference office. To be included on the distribution list, send an e-mail request to Chuck Sullivan.

VIDEO CONTENT

The American audio and video content — including game highlights and coaches' press conferences — is available to interested broadcast outlets through the XOS Digital XChange platform. Send an email request to Chuck Sullivan to receive access to the content.

POSTSEASON AWARDS

All-American Athletic Conference First and Second Teams, Players of the Year on offense, defense and special teams, Rookie of the Year and Coach of the Year are selected by a vote of the league's 12 head coaches at the conclusion of the regular season. The awards will be announced in December 2015. The American All-Academic Team is comprised of players who have an overall grade-point average of 3.00 or better over the past academic year and completed at least two semesters of academic work. The team is announced in July. The American Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year was established to recognize student-athletes who have achieved success in the classroom and on the field. The winner receives a scholarship which may be applied to graduate or professional studies.

WEEKLY AWARDS

The American names offensive, defensive and special teams Players of the Week each Monday morning during the season. Winners are chosen from nominations provided by the conference school's sports information directors.

AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

On Saturday, December 5, 2015, the American Athletic Conference will hold its first Conference Championship Game. Kickoff will be at 12:00 noon and will be televised nationally by ABC or ESPN. The game will pit the divisional champions from the East and West divisions.

The divisional champions will be the teams from each division with the highest winning percentage in all conference games – both divisional and non-divisional. In the event of a two-team tie within a division, the head-to-head result between the tied teams will determine the divisional champion. The site of the American Athletic Conference Football Championship will be the home venue of the divisional champion with the best record in conference games.
